

PUTTING ON THE DOG—With Easter less than a week away, a lady's fancy turns to hats—fancy ones, that is. And that applies to dogs as well as their human contemporaries, as is evident from above photo. Note satisfied expression on our model's face.

(Staff Photo by MacLeod)

Palm Sunday Services Fill County Churches

THOUSANDS of Monroe County residents thronged both Catholic and Protestant churches yesterday for the traditional Palm Sunday services. Clear, cool weather greeted the worshippers on their way to church.

Confirmation classes entered into membership in several county churches during yesterday's pre-Easter rites. Distribution of palms was a highlight at a number of the services.

Grace Lutheran Church, East Stroudsburg, reported 33 new members were taken into the church during Rites of Confirmation.

Thirteen new members were received by the Middle Smithfield - Shawnee Presbyterian parish at solemn services yesterday, four of them young people while the rest were adults.

Stroudsburg Methodist Church received 12 new members while rites of infant baptism were also performed.

Canadensis Rites

Canadensis Methodist Church

received seven young people into the church following the sermon by Rev. John D. O'Neill. Zion United Church of Christ had one baptism, Rick Russell Bachman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bachman, during services.

Stroudsburg Presbyterian will receive its new members following Holy Communion Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The "Rites of the Palms" was part of the services at East Stroudsburg Presbyterian Church yesterday, noting Palm Sunday.

Eastern Pilgrim College's 30-voice choir presented a concert of sacred music yesterday morning at services at Pilgrim Holiness Church.

Blessing Of Palms

The Blessing of the Palms with a procession was held at St. Matthew's Roman Catholic Church yesterday during the 11:30 a.m. mass. This was for the three churches in the parish—the others being St. Luke's and St. John's, Bushkill.

Father Fitzgerald, of Bangor, concluded the Holy Week observances in the parish when he spoke last night at St. Matthew's.

During the late mass, the Passion was read in English during the procession.

Canadensis Moravian Church noted Palm Sunday with two infant baptisms—Susan Lydia Garris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Garris, and Joanne Lynn Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bennett.

Palms were distributed during services at Christ Episcopal Church in the observance of Palm Sunday.

Tobyhanna Service

A full week of Holy Week services have been listed by Tobyhanna Methodist with the high point being Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday.

Pastor Milton Reiber celebrated Holy Communion Saturday at the Easton Church of the Seventh Day Adventists.

Tenebrae services were conducted last night at Mountain Home Methodist Church in observance of Palm Sunday.

Offerings of eggs and egg-money were received yesterday at St. John's Lutheran Church for the Good Shepherd Home, Allentown.

Cherry Valley Charge of the Methodist Church also had several infant baptisms during Palm Sunday.

Seven Texans Killed In Two-Car Collision

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Seven persons were killed and another critically injured in a two-car crash at a farm road intersection near this west Texas city late Sunday.

One family of three was wiped out.

The dead were identified as: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Millikin of nearby Slaton.

John Clinton Millikin, 22, of Slaton.

Walter Taylor, 15, of nearby Wolfroth.

Mr. and Mrs. Doye Dean Tucker and their 4-year-old son, Darrell.

The injured is Carl Robert Millikin, 8.

The Millikins were riding in a car driven by the Taylor youth. He was reported to have been a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Millikin.

Tucker, 27, and his 23-year-old wife, Shirley, and their small son occupied the second car.

Millikin was 65 and Mrs. Millikin 58.

The crash occurred at an intersection just southwest of Lubbock.

Both roads have embankments of about 20 feet where the accident occurred. Visibility is unimpaired for three-quarters of a mile.

One report said one car hit the other broadside. A telephone pole was snapped.

The crash occurred about 6:15 p.m.

In the eighth century B.C., Amos, Hosea, Isaiah, and Micah brought a new understanding of God. They challenged man's sin—his injustice, immorality, self-centeredness—and proclaimed the love of God.

The teachings of these prophets helped nurture and sustain the Jewish people during the Babylonian captivity. A remnant held to their religion and worshiped God. Through the prophets God led His people.

This is an example of the love of God that challenged the sin of man and made a difference in the history of the world. What a stretching out of the hand of God men have in the gift of His Son! Jesus was placed in human hands as a babe, and His message left in human hands at His resurrection! Have we fully accepted this gift?

PRAYER: Dear Father God, we come in prayer offering our praise and thanksgiving for Thy love and goodness. During this holy season may we grasp anew the full and creative meaning of Thy love. Cleanse us of sin so that we may make a difference in the world. For Jesus' sake and in His name we pray. Amen.

Thought For The Day In spite of our sin, God's hand is extended to us in love.

Good Morning!

Much is said about what Americans stand for. Equally important are the things Americans won't stand for.

Actor Dies; Kin Denies Girl's Story

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — William Stanciu, an aspiring actor who tried to follow in the late Errol Flynn's footsteps, died Sunday — about 24 hours after he shot himself in front of Beverly Aadland, Flynn's last flame.

Beverly, a 17-year-old night club entertainer, told police Stanciu, 21, forced his way into her apartment at gunpoint and raped her early Saturday. She said he threatened to kill her, then sobbed: "I love you too much. . . I can't kill you!" and shot himself in the head.

Her story was bitterly denied by the dead youth's brother, Kenneth, 22, another would-be actor whose professional name is Shawn Tanner.

He told The Associated Press: "Why would Billy want to rape her? He and Beverly have been going together every night for six weeks. Everybody in town knows that."

Miss Aadland, who has been taken to Juvenile Hall, told authorities Stanciu asked to marry her and that she refused.

"He told me that I had ruined his life — that he loved me, but I didn't love him, and he was going to kill me," Beverly sobbed. "That's a pack of lies." Kenneth asserted, "Beverly asked Billy to marry her a few weeks ago."

Didn't Chase Her

"My brother didn't run after her. He was a body-builder, a good-looking guy, who had all the girls he wanted."

He said he was certain that his brother didn't shoot himself because: "He wasn't that kind of a guy. He had everything to live for. Today was his 21st birthday."

"Tonight he was going to give Beverly a going-away party in a house he'd rented in the Hollywood hills."

Miss Aadland, a slender, platinum blonde with round eyes and pouting mouth, was to start a night club tour next week. She awaits a hearing Wednesday to determine if she has "adequate parental supervision."

Juvenile Hall authorities would not permit newsmen to talk to Beverly.

Kenneth gave this description of his brother: He was a wild, impulsive youth with a juvenile arrest record. But he was warm-hearted and fun-loving also. He was movie-struck and wanted to be an actor in the tradition of the swashbuckler Errol Flynn.

Stanciu died in the General Hospital prison ward. He was booked on a rape charge Saturday. Police listed the death as suicide and said they have no plans at present for an inquest. The coroner's office will perform an autopsy.

Police said Beverly's mother, Florence Aadland, 43, identified Stanciu as one of her assailants outside a night spot April 3. She said Stanciu — known as "Billy the Kid" by his friends — got angry because she tried to break off his romance with Beverly. She said Stanciu, who worked at odd jobs, "couldn't afford to buy Beverly toothpaste for a month."

Mother Hospitalized

Mrs. Aadland has been hospitalized for treatment of bruised ribs. She claims the injuries were inflicted on her by Stanciu. The dead youth's brother denied this too — saying Stanciu "backhanded her once after she slugged him."

She predicted the tragedy would help not hurt her daughter's career because: "Beverly is such an intelligent girl. She knew her ABC's at the age of 18 months."

The Daily Record

VOL. 72—NO. 9

Telephone HA 1-3000 THE DAILY RECORD, STROUDSBURG—EAST STROUDSBURG, PA., MONDAY, APRIL 11, 1960 SEVEN CENTS

Farmer Faces Quick Arraignment In Shooting Of African Premier

Seek Soviet Ban On Arms To Africans

LONDON (AP) — The Western Big Three Sunday were reported planning to invite the Soviet Union to join in rationing the supply of arms to Africa's new nations.

Diplomatic authorities said if Premier Nikita Khrushchev accepts the idea at the summit meeting in Paris next month, the Big Four will jointly seek the cooperation of the African countries.

Success of any such pilot scheme in East-West arms limitation could clear the way for similar action in the Middle East and elsewhere, informants said.

Behind the Allied approach is a fear that turbulent Africa could become a dangerous new setting for the old cold war. By the end of this year, two-thirds of the continent's 230 million people will be running their own affairs for the first time.

Arms To Guinea

Already shipments of arms from Communist Czechoslovakia have arrived in the infant republic of Guinea.

There is a long list of other African territories which have either gained independence as new nations or are scheduled or gunning for it—Ghana, Nigeria, Cameroon, Morocco, Kenya, and Nyassaland, to name a few. All have need to look to their security with the gradual removal of imperial protection.

American, British and French foreign ministers met in Washington Tuesday to consider the rationing scheme, along with other aspects of summit policy.

The scheme is said to have been initiated by British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan after his recent swing through Africa. He evidently figures basic Western interests could be hurt unless the Big Four agree on some form of control for the flow of arms. At the same time, he sees an opportunity for putting Soviet sincerity to the test.

The Blessing of the Palms with a procession was held at St. Matthew's Roman Catholic Church yesterday during the 11:30 a.m. mass. This was for the three churches in the parish—the others being St. Luke's and St. John's, Bushkill.

Father Fitzgerald, of Bangor, concluded the Holy Week observances in the parish when he spoke last night at St. Matthew's.

During the late mass, the Passion was read in English during the procession.

Canadensis Moravian Church noted Palm Sunday with two infant baptisms—Susan Lydia Garris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Garris, and Joanne Lynn Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bennett.

Palms were distributed during services at Christ Episcopal Church in the observance of Palm Sunday.

Offerings of eggs and egg-money were received yesterday at St. John's Lutheran Church for the Good Shepherd Home, Allentown.

Cherry Valley Charge of the Methodist Church also had several infant baptisms during Palm Sunday.

Tobyhanna Service

A full week of Holy Week services have been listed by Tobyhanna Methodist with the high point being Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday.

Pastor Milton Reiber celebrated Holy Communion Saturday at the Easton Church of the Seventh Day Adventists.

Tenebrae services were conducted last night at Mountain Home Methodist Church in observance of Palm Sunday.

Offerings of eggs and egg-money were received yesterday at St. John's Lutheran Church for the Good Shepherd Home, Allentown.

Cherry Valley Charge of the Methodist Church also had several infant baptisms during Palm Sunday.

Protects Against Lukemia

Cancer Serum Works On Animals

CHICAGO (AP)—A researcher seeking an antiserum to protect humans against cancer reported Sunday he has developed one that works on experimental animals.

Dr. S. de Carvalho said the serum protects laboratory mice from human blood leukemia that causes cancers in other animals.

He said his studies with transplants also have shown that cancers can be caused and transmitted by damaged human RNA the protein factories that operate inside cells.

Dr. Carvalho, of the Cancer Research Laboratories, Doctors Hospital and Rand Development Corp., Cleveland, reported on his experiments in an interview and paper at a meeting of the American Assn. for Cancer Research.

RNA, or ribonucleic acid, is found in the cytoplasmic lake surrounding the nucleus of the cell. It takes its orders on how to manufacture proteins from the DNA, or Gene substance in the cell that governs heredity.

He took the blood and bone marrow and tumors from human leukemia or cancer patients and spun the substance in a high-speed centrifuge to separate cell RNA from its protein cover. The RNA he recovered proved to be altered from its normal states. This RNA then was added to human cells growing in a culture. The cells took up the RNA, showed cancerous changes, and produced more RNA of their own.

By use of the centrifuge, the old and newly produced RNA was removed from these culture cells and injected into laboratory mice.

These mice developed not only leukemia, but cancers of the lung, breast and pancreas.

Next, additional RNA from the culture was injected into rabbits, which are less sensitive than mice, and it apparently stimulated the formulation of antibodies to protect them against a harmful reaction against it.

Blood from these rabbits then was injected into other laboratory mice, Dr. de Carvalho reported, and they remained immune to cancers or leukemia after receiving injections of the RNA that caused tumors in unprotected mice.

The researcher said the RNA that caused the cancers could have been altered originally by a hormone, some other chemical, a physical injury, or by a virus.

Hungarian Revolt Preceded By Killing Of 600 Russians

WASHINGTON (AP)—The anti-Communist revolts of late 1956 in Hungary and Poland actually began in the Soviet Union itself in the spring of the same year, a witness has told the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

More than 600 Georgians were killed by Soviet troops in Tbilisi, capital of Georgia, in March 1956, Guivry Zaladastani, Milton, Mass., told the committee last January. His testimony was made public Sunday.

Georgia, one of the Soviet republics, is situated in the Caucasus between the Black and Caspian seas, Joseph W. Stalin, the late Soviet dictator, was a Georgian by birth.

Individual Liberties

Zaladastani, a native Georgian, graduate of Harvard and now manager of a Boston department store, told the committee that on March 7, 1956, several thousand students and workers demonstrated on Tbilisi's streets shouting for "individual liberties."

The demonstrators, he said, were allowed to disperse, but next day Georgia was virtually isolated from the world.

"The next morning all communications with Georgia ceased," Zaladastani said. "The visiting French president, Vincent Auriol, was flown out of Tbilisi, Prime Minister Hansen of Denmark, scheduled to land in Tbilisi that day, was rerouted to Stalingrad at the last minute. Six U.S. physicians scheduled to visit Tbilisi for a few days 'agreed' to drop the Georgian capital from their itinerary at the suggestion of Soviet officials."

Tried To Escape

Then Soviet troops were ordered out of their barracks and tanks moved in against barricades erected by the demonstrators.

Many of the rioters, trapped by the advancing tanks, tried to escape by jumping from cliffs into the Kura River, running through the center of the city, the witness said.

"This obvious death jump was the only chance to escape. The casualties were reported to exceed 600," he said.

He told of two boys and a girl whom he called "the heroes of the day" who through a radio transmitter they set up told the free world about the revolt. They were bayoneted by the soldiers and thrown into the street.

Zaladastani, under questioning, said Soviet Prime Minister Nikita Khrushchev was responsible for suppressing the revolt.

Zaladastani told the committee his information stemmed from documentary material he had and confidential sources in Georgia which he could not reveal because it would jeopardize their lives.

Bureau scientists said as far as could be determined here, the hurricane or typhoon about 800 miles east of Brisbane, Australia, had not been reported previously.

27 Face Trial

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—Twenty-seven Moroccan merchants charged with making and marketing adulterated cooking oil which paralyzed nearly 10,000 people go on trial Monday. Four accused of directing the operation, face the death penalty; the other 23 are accused as accomplices.

YOUTH ADMITS HOUSEBREAKING

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—A youth admitted to police Sunday that he went about the business of being a sneak thief with such ardor he lost 30 pounds in two months.

Joseph R. Burch, 18, Providence, listed also the tough working hours, the fears, frustrations and the embarrassments during his admitted career as a burglar.

Burch expressed joy, police said, that his night-time polvies are at an end as he was booked on charges of breaking and entering in the night-time. He gave his occupation as restaurant worker, adding he's been out of work the past month.

Committee Appointed

WASHINGTON (AP) The Democratic Advisory Committee Sunday named a committee of seven scientists and economists to plan now for the transition from a defense to a peaceful economy in event of world disarmament.

Weekend Deaths

Herbert LaBar, 45, died Saturday in Castle Point, VA Hospital—Page Five.

Clinton Storm, 72, died Friday at Stroudsburg RD home—Page Two.

Milton Kitchen, 56, of East Stroudsburg, fatally stricken in restaurant—Page Seven.

Mrs. Florence Westbrook, 72, died Saturday at East Stroudsburg RD. — Page Seven.

Morse Plots Strategy On Medical Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) said Sunday he will try to the federal medical aid for the aged onto "the first House appropriations bill that comes over" to the Senate.

Morse said the chances are slim that Congress will pass such legislation this year but he declared "I'm going to do the best I can to get it passed."

He said his bill will be similar to one introduced in the House by Rep. Aime J. Forand (D-R.I.) which has been blocked by the House Ways and Means Committee. That measure would incorporate a medical care program for retired persons into the Social Security tax to pay for it.

The Administration has made clear it is opposed to raising the Social Security tax to pay for the aid and wants a strictly voluntary system based on private health insurance.

Tiros Notes Hurricane

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tiro I, America's television weather satellite, Sunday caught a hurricane off Australia with its camera.

The U.S. Weather Bureau hailed the photos as more meteorological history from the experimental satellite and said it gave hopes for solving the problem with future weather satellite camera systems.

Bureau scientists said as far as could be determined here, the hurricane or typhoon about 800 miles east of Brisbane, Australia, had not been reported previously.

27 Face Trial

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—Twenty-seven Moroccan merchants charged with making and marketing adulterated cooking oil which paralyzed nearly 10,000 people go on trial Monday. Four accused of directing the operation, face the death penalty; the other 23 are accused as accomplices.

YOUTH ADMITS HOUSEBREAKING

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—A youth admitted to police Sunday that he went about the business of being a sneak thief with such ardor he lost 30 pounds in two months.

Joseph R. Burch, 18, Providence, listed also the tough working hours, the fears, frustrations and the embarrassments during his admitted career as a burglar.

Burch expressed joy, police said, that his night-time polvies are at an end as he was booked on charges of breaking and entering in the night-time. He gave his occupation as restaurant worker, adding he's been out of work the past month.

Committee Appointed

WASHINGTON (AP) The Democratic Advisory Committee Sunday named a committee of seven scientists and economists to plan now for the transition from a defense to a peaceful economy in event of world disarmament.

Weekend Deaths

Herbert LaBar, 45, died Saturday in Castle Point, VA Hospital—Page Five.

Clinton Storm, 72, died Friday at Stroudsburg RD home—Page Two.

Milton Kitchen, 56, of East Stroudsburg, fatally stricken in restaurant—Page Seven.

Mrs. Florence Westbrook, 72, died Saturday at East Stroudsburg RD. — Page Seven.

YOUTH ADMITS HOUSEBREAKING

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—A youth admitted to police Sunday that he went about the business of being a sneak thief with such ardor he lost 30 pounds in two months.

Joseph R. Burch, 18, Providence, listed also the tough working hours, the fears, frustrations and the embarrassments during his admitted career as a burglar.

Burch expressed joy, police said, that his night-time polvies are at an end as he was booked on charges of breaking and entering in the night-time. He gave his occupation as restaurant worker, adding he's been out of work the past month.

Committee Appointed

WASHINGTON (AP) The Democratic Advisory Committee Sunday named a committee of seven scientists and economists to plan now for the transition from a defense to a peaceful economy in event of world disarmament.

Verwoerd's Condition Satisfactory

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Officials were reported Sunday preparing a quick and possibly secret arraignment of the white farmer who shot down Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd in an assassination attempt.

As the plans went toward the Cabinet prepared to meet Monday to discuss South Africa's deepening racial crisis and the situation arising from the shooting.

Serious Challenge

The 58-year-old Verwoerd, unbending champion of white supremacy and racial segregation, was brushed from the helm of the nation's affairs Saturday as South Africa faced its most fearsome challenge from 10 million Negroes.

With two small-caliber bullets still in his head, Verwoerd was still well enough Sunday to be removed from Johannesburg to a Retoria hospital where he was reported in satisfactory condition. Doctors said he was resting well and there was no need for an immediate operation to remove the bullets.

As the ambulance sped the wounded Prime Minister to Pretoria, 600 police and 1,000 troops moved into the troubled Negro settlement of Cato Manor, outside the east coast city of Durban, and made a shack-to-shack search.

300 Arrested

They arrested more than 300 Africans, holding 143 of them, and seized a truckload of spears, knives, axes and seven sticks of dynamite.

The eight-hour raid, beginning at dawn, was one of the largest ever carried out in Natal province.

The settlement is a hotbed of resistance to Verwoerd's white supremacy laws.

Elsewhere, a small church went up in flames near Port Elizabeth, on the southeast coast.

Informed sources said David Pratt, the wealthy 52-year-old man who fired the two bullets into Verwoerd's head at the Johannesburg agricultural exposition, will be arraigned before a magistrate Monday in some small town to avoid the violence that might erupt in a large city.

Hates Nationalists

He was examined by medical experts Sunday and was visited at the Marshall Square jail in Johannesburg by his daughter by first marriage.

A friend said Pratt "hates Nationalists and Verwoerd is Nationalist No. 1."

The daughter said her father was "perfectly contented" and not upset by his situation."

The assailant and his second wife are estranged and he has been seeking a reconciliation, informants said. She is in Holland.

A friend said Pratt had been having psychological troubles. The operator of a large farm 30 miles outside Johannesburg, Pratt also has been interested in a Johannesburg candy factory and was well-known in local society.

From England

He has largely withdrawn from management of the candy factory which last Christmas made large donations for the poor. Police said he came to South Africa from England when he was 4 years old.

He was nattily dressed in green sports jacket and slacks when he made his way to Verwoerd's box at the farm fair, spoke the Prime Minister's name softly and then began shooting.

Detectives and security police searched several homes in the Johannesburg area in connection with the shooting, but did not disclose what they were looking for. So far there has been no indication of any accomplices.

Pratt was roughly handled by those in the crowd who could reach him at the shooting scene, and later there were some shouts against English-speaking journalists.

But despite the British background of the assailant, only a limited amount of anti-British sentiment has welled up among extremely nationalist Dutch - descended Afrikaners.

Pope Applauded

ROME (AP) — Pope John XXIII was applauded by thousands of tourists Sunday as he took part in Palm Sunday service in the Basilica of St. Paul outside the walls. The pontiff, who went by car from the Vatican to the basilica on the outskirts of Rome, was joined in the service by 22 cardinals.

BRISTLING WITH WARHEADS—An artist depicts a Navy task force of the future with a new weapons system, called Typhon after the Greek monster with 100 heads, providing an umbrella of defense. The brain of Typhon is a radar antenna, able to keep track of several missiles at once and masked by a dome. Typhon missiles on the deck of the cruiser (foreground) are given instant reflex action to destroy an incoming enemy missile as the ship in background is doing. The radar, under development and production by Westinghouse Electric Corp., will also operate against any fleet targets at long range.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) said Sunday he will try to the federal medical aid for the aged onto "the first House appropriations bill that comes over" to the Senate.

Morse said the chances are slim that Congress will pass such legislation this year but he declared "I'm going to do the best I can to get it passed."

He said his bill will be similar to one introduced in the House by Rep. Aime J. Forand (D-R.I.) which has been blocked by the House Ways and Means Committee. That measure would incorporate a medical care program for retired persons into the Social Security tax to pay for it.

The Administration has made clear it is opposed to raising the Social Security tax to pay for the aid and wants a strictly voluntary system based on private health insurance.

Tiros Notes Hurricane

The Daily Investor

Installment Buying Of Stocks

By William A. Doyle
Q. Brokerage houses have been making quite a business of selling stocks on the installment plan, requiring only a small down payment. Isn't this a violation of the Federal Reserve Board's margin rules, which prohibit brokers from loaning more than 10 percent of the value of securities purchased?

A. It would be a violation of the margin requirements, if things were being done as you think they are. But they are not.

You must William A. Doyle bethinking about the Monthly Investment Plan (through which it is possible to invest as little as $40 a month or every three months in any of the stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange), the various accumulation plans for the purchase of mutual fund shares and the other periodic investment programs.

But none of these is actually an "installment plan" in the sense that term usually implies.

Each payment into such a plan is an individual purchase. The money in each payment is invested (after commissions are taken out) in shares and fractions of shares.

The Federal Reserve margin rules are not violated, because the investors using these plans do not borrow money to buy securities.

Q. We have a number of grandchildren. We would like to help pay their college expenses. Rather than give each child $500 or $1,000, would it be possible to set up an educational fund for all, with the stipulation that each child be permitted to use a set amount of money each year? If it is possible, how would I set up such a fund?

A. Yes, you can have an arrangement such as you suggest—by having a trust fund set up. For that chore you should consult a lawyer.

Some of the mail addressed to this corner shows that some people try to set up trust funds on their own. That can often lead to serious mistakes. Trusts are tricky. To get full advantage of all that trusts can do and to avoid errors, you should have good legal advice.

Q. In one of your columns, you said that "members of the New York Stock Exchange do not sit down when they are on the trading floor of the exchange. They're too busy. And they couldn't sit down, even if they wanted to. No chairs are provided for them."

Members of the exchange do sit down during trading hours. They sit on folding seats, which are attached to the horseshoe-shaped trading posts on the floor of the exchange. I believe in accuracy in writing.

A. OK, let's be accurate. There are now 1,366 memberships on the New York Stock Exchange. On an ordinary business day, anywhere from 800 to 900 members will be on the floor of the exchange. There are 225 "folding seats" as you describe.

If that makes the previous column inaccurate, there's not much more I can say.

But that was not the point of the previous column. In that column, I tried to point out that "seat" is a poor substitute for the word "membership" on a stock exchange.

At one time, all members of the exchange were provided with chairs. If you visit the floor of the exchange, you will soon learn that few members ever sit down.

(Mr. Doyle will answer only representative letters of general interest in his column. He cannot answer phone queries.)

Lt. John A. Sebring

Lt. Sebring Takes Part In Maneuvers

MARINE 1st Lt. John A. Sebring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Sebring of Tannersville, took part in a 150-mile "Desert to the Sea March" with units of the First Marine Division which ended on March 30 at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The march, which began at the Marine Corps Base, Twenty-nine Palms, Calif., on March 25, involved approximately 2,500 Marines of the First Division. The trek was accomplished at a rate of 25 miles daily, bivouacking at pre-arranged areas nightly.

The long training march came as the climax of a 10-day desert training exercise known as "Desflex."

Blakeslee

Miss Shirley Hawk and Mrs. Harry Shafer fed "Pete the Pig" with birthday money Sunday morning at the Methodist Church school service.

The SOS signal sent out by ships in danger has no meaning in actual words. It is a danger signal to transmit easily and quickly.

ADVERTISEMENT

ADVERTISEMENT

Science Shrinks Piles
New Way Without Surgery
Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H.*

At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

*Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

C. A. Storm, 72, Dies At RD 2 Home

CLINTON A. STORM, 72, of Stroudsburg RD 2, died Friday at 9:45 a.m. at his home.

Born in Scranton, he was the son of the late George and Augusta Williams Storm.

He was a retired farmer, and had also worked for the Erie Railroad as a blacksmith for a number of years.

Mr. Storm was of the Reformed faith.

Only survivors are a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held today at 2 p.m. at the Daniel G. Warner Funeral Home, with Rev. Adan Bohner officiating.

Interment will be in Shafer's School House Cemetery.

Meeting Planned By Educators

PHILIPSBURG, N. J.—Warren County educators will meet Wednesday, May 11, at the annual dinner meeting of the Warren County Education Assn. to be held at the Pavilion.

Elton Vosseller, superintendent of Schools in Oxford, N. J., is in charge of the event.

Theme for the meeting is "For the Quality Schools in the Quantity We Need."

Early Week Special!

ACKERMAN'S FOOD CENTER
Broad & Bryant Sts.
South Stroudsburg

SUGAR
5 lb. Bag 49¢
Mon.-Tues.-Wed.
WITH THIS AD

Penn-Can Project Scheduled

ALBANY — New York State announced it would start construction soon on the Penn-Can Highway starting at Five Mile Point, near Binghamton, N. Y.

The plans call for paying a section from the Pennsylvania State Line to Five-Mile Point.

When completed the highway will run from Pennsylvania to Canada.

Sell First Issue Of School Bonds

PENNSYLVANIA State School Building Authority announced yesterday that it had sold its first issue of open-end revenue bonds in the public market.

In behalf of 10 local school areas $16,022,000 was raised by the agency.

The bonds were bought at public sealed bidding by Halsey, Stuart and Company, Inc.

The authority will finance another bid in June when $30,000,000 to $35,000,000 is expected to be raised.

give her a convertible

LADY BUXTON Convertible

Convertible... because the photo case removes completely for separate use. A "Flickbar" lets her add extra windows if she wants! Convenient... because of the "Magic Purse" that lets her drop in coins without unsnapping. Choice of leathers and colors.

Counterman's DRUG STORE
39 Crystal Street, E. Stroudsburg, Pa.
Phone HA 1-7311

Plan Management Workshop

UNIVERSITY PARK — Management workshops sponsored by the Pennsylvania State University will be held at Split Rock Lodge, in the Poconos, for supervisory and management personnel on two dates in June, the University has announced.

The first workshop, on "The Fundamentals of Supervision," will be held June 1924 at the Lodge, and will cover all facets of the position of supervisor in various organizations.

The second, on "Decision Ma-

Jerry Livingston, composer of "Mairzy Doats" and other hit songs, was born in Denver.

Flowers... an Easter tradition

As usual we will have the largest selection from which to choose... Order now if you like. HA 1-4290.

Howell's GREENHOUSES
Braeside Ave. at E. Brown

all management and supervisory employees.

Persons desiring additional information can contact Dr. O. H. Tribble, Continuing Education Bldg., Pennsylvania State University, University Park.

STARTING TODAY

PROGRAM

CHANGES ON WVPO

Radio Want Ads 9:05 & 5:05
Buy, Sell, Rent or Trade on Radio Want Ads

Mid-Day Melodies 11:05-12:00
55 Minutes of Relaxing Quality Music

Baseball Bandstand 1:05
Tunes & Views Heard Daily Before the Yankee Games

Musical Scoreboard *
*Right After Ball Games
Quality Music Plus Scores of Major League Games

APRIL HOURS 6:30 A.M. to 6:45 P.M.

WVPO DIAL 840

"The Voice Of The Poconos"

Commuter Service Costly But Local Run Profitable

WASHINGTON — If no relief was afforded from New Jersey taxes soon, then the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad would discontinue its suburban commuter service, Congress has been told.

Perry M. Shoemaker, president of the line, speaking before the House Transportation sub-committee, said the DL&W was "losing its shirt" on commuter services.

Stating there presently was no way of making a profit on such service, Shoemaker said the DL&W would end the commuter service unless "some arrangement" for tax relief was not found soon in order that the railroad could at least break even from operations.

Changes Considered
The House sub-committee is presently considering several changes in the Interstate Commerce Act.

Describing the New Jersey taxes as the worst of any state insofar as railroads are concerned, Shoemaker said the line collectively lost $32,000,000 during the past ten years on passenger service, and added that during that same period, "we paid $32,000,000 to Jersey in taxes."

The DL&W's New York-Buffalo run for passengers, however, was making over "out of pocket" expenses Shoemaker

Suburban Tags Deadline Set

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Revenue Department said that affidavits or other proof of application for station wagon license tags cannot be accepted in lieu of a 1960 license plate or sticker.

The department said persons driving station wagons with passenger vehicles tags have until April 30 to apply for the correct registration — the so-called suburban tags.

Something Wonderful Happens

WHEN A YOUNGSTER DELIVERS HIS FIRST NEWSPAPER!

A transition takes place... PURPOSE... takes over for the restlessness of youth, and the boy is on his way to a successful future.

A BUSINESSMAN IS BORN

This new association molds his future; it trains him to be a self-reliant good citizen. It teaches him the fundamentals of good business practice... he will learn:

1. BUSINESS PROCEDURE

The art of keeping records, how to purchase papers, and to pay for them, all by himself.

2. RESPONSIBILITY—DEPENDABILITY

Will become a vital part of him as he learns how to meet people, to cater to their wishes, and to understand their problems.

3. SALESMANSHIP

Selling is a career in itself. Newspaper training will teach him the proper methods used to sell anything; it can be a vital factor in his future success.

4. THRIFT

Earning money is but a small part of newspaper training. The boy is urged to save part of each week's earnings for something worthwhile in the future.

In the final analysis "something wonderful" has happened...

Brookwood 4-Door 6-Passenger Station Wagon

CHEVY! YOU CAN'T BUY ANY CAR FOR LESS ...UNLESS IT'S A LOT LESS CAR!

Anyone who's looked around knows the majority of Chevrolet models—6's and V8's together—list for less than comparable models of other low-priced cars. But the price tag alone is only one of a whole raft of reasons a Chevy does better by your dollars. For in no other low-priced car will you find such price-less advantages as Fisher Body craftsmanship, an X-built Safety-Girder frame, Safety Plate Glass in every window and countless "extras" that don't cost you a penny more!

The price tags on a '60 Chevrolet and the other cars in its class may look somewhat alike. But there—very abruptly—the resemblance ends.

Nothing near Chevy's size and price can match the Full Coil cushioning of its ride, or the fine, finished workmanship of its Body by Fisher. That even applies to some cars that cost a lot more. You're up in the higher price brackets before you find a car that moves as quietly as a Chevrolet or offers the inner space that Chevrolet does.

Or look at the extras Chevy gives you—at no extra cost—that others in its class can't offer at any price. Shock-cushioned steering. Safety Plate Glass in every window. Keyless locking of all doors. A full wraparound windshield. Vent windows that crank open and closed. Chevrolet offers the widest choice of power teams, too—seven engines and five transmissions—including shift-free Turboglide, an extra-cost option.

Drop by your dealer's and drive a Chevy—just once. You'll have a tough time settling for anything less.

For economical transportation

Air Conditioning—temperature made to order—for all-weather comfort. Get a demonstration! See The Dinah Shore Chevy Show in color Sundays, NBC-TV—the Pat Boone Chevy Showroom weekly, ABC-TV.

See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer for fast delivery, favorable deals

Authorized Chevrolet dealers in Stroudsburg Area

A. E. KROME
Gilbert, Pa. — Phone OV 1-2833
McCAMBRIDGE CHEVROLET
Canadensis, Pa. — Phone LY 5-7111

GRAY CHEVROLET
Tannersville, Pa. — Phone HA 1-3350
TUCKER CHEVROLET COMPANY
912 Main Street — Phone HA 1-5200

The Daily Record

A Public Statement Of Policy from The Citizens' Committee To DEFEAT RACETRACK GAMBLING In Monroe County, Pennsylvania

The Citizens' Committee to DEFEAT RACETRACK GAMBLING is a bi-partisan group of local citizens who have banded together out of the deep conviction that the Racetrack Referendum of April 26 is the most important local issue ever to be placed before the voters of this county.

The Citizens' Committee to DEFEAT RACETRACK GAMBLING believes that if the voting public of Monroe County can be adequately informed on this issue it will overwhelmingly vote NO!

Those state-wide interests responsible for getting this issue on the ballot have arranged that it be decided at a primary election. This is no accident. They are only too cynically aware that a small minority - less than 30% - of the electorate "bothers" to turn out and vote at a primary. They know their best chance of "success" lies in a lazy electorate and a small vote.

The Citizens' Committee to DEFEAT RACETRACK GAMBLING, therefore, urges every voter who is concerned about the welfare of his family, job, home, business and community to vote on April 26 and vote NO!

WHY?

The Citizens' Committee to DEFEAT RACETRACK GAMBLING Is Opposed To This Issue:

1. ON ECONOMIC GROUNDS. The notion that the States' percentage of the pari-mutuel "take" will in any way "keep taxes down" is nonsense AND CONTRARY TO THE EXPERIENCE OF EVERY ONE of the 24 states where legalized gambling is now permitted.
2. FOR THE GOOD OF A GROWING COMMUNITY. Without question, Monroe County is on the verge of a new era of SUBSTANTIAL, SOLID growth. A racetrack operation is a "quick buck" operation that relies on "fast action" in a short period of time. The voting members of a community are concerned with its welfare 365 days each year... not just for the racing season, to make-it-quick...get-out-fast...and-go-on-to-the-next-track.
3. ON MORAL GROUNDS. The entire premise of racetrack gambling is that the bettor is trying to get something for nothing at the expense of his fellow man. This country, yea, this county, was built by men who were willing to spend the sweat of their brow to build a future for themselves and their families, Let's keep it that way.

April 26 is the point of no return. YOU HAVE ONLY ONE CHANCE. Once your vote is cast, you will have little chance to reconsider. If legalized gambling at harness-race tracks comes to Monroe County - no matter how damaging an effect it may have on our community - it will be impossible for you to vote on the subject ever again. There never will be another referendum on this subject in Monroe County according to the present law.

To help get this to every voter in the county, The Citizens' Committee to DEFEAT RACETRACK GAMBLING solicits and welcomes volunteer workers... men and women who will contact friends and neighbors to "get out the vote" and distribute literature.

To help get this message to every voter in the county, The Citizens' Committee to DEFEAT RACETRACK GAMBLING solicits and welcomes cash contributions from interested individuals and organizations to help pay for newspaper space, radio time and literature.

For further information contact any of the members of the Executive Committee whose names and phone numbers are listed below. SEND CONTRIBUTIONS TO: Citizens' Committee, P. O. Box 226, Stroudsburg, Pa. (Reprints of this announcement are available on request for posting on business and organizational bulletin boards. Better yet, tear out this copy and tack it up - TODAY!)

E. H. WYCKOFF
HA 1-1400

DR. JAMES G. KITCHEN
Pocono Lake 2-2611

ERNEST R. FARMER
GR 6-0550

GORDON D. TAYLOR
HA 1-6345

MRS. ROLLAND EVERITT
HA 1-2243

JOSEPH H. SMALL
HA 1-0121

The Citizens' Committee To DEFEAT RACETRACK GAMBLING In Monroe County, Pennsylvania
VOTE "NO" APRIL 26

The Daily Record EDITORIAL PAGE

Everyone's Problem

Crime costs this nation some 22 billion dollars a year—and "In the last 10 years something has happened to the American public that is worse than Communism. A new kind of crime is sweeping the nation. People claim it's all right to be a little bit of a thief, to do a little wrong."

That indictment comes from a real authority—Juvenile Judge Gilliam of Denver. Naturally enough, he is particularly concerned about juvenile delinquency which, it is forecast, will double in the next 10 years. He says: "The belief seems to be 'Never get sore about anything. Don't fight the racketeer; you'd just get hurt.'"

"I ask boys why they stole, and they answered 'I didn't want to be a square.' 'Can you imagine a great American who would say 'I didn't want to be a chicken?'"

"Thomas Jefferson and George Washington were angry Americans."

What we are confronted with is a great and gnawing moral problem. To quote Judge Gilliam once more, "We'll have delinquency as long as we have people who don't care, sloppy homes, people who excuse wrong-doing, poorly-trained teachers, filthy magazines and violent television programs." And this problem is everybody's problem.

Opinions Of Other Editors

Progress In Defense Costs

There is a welcome indication that some defense costs are getting more efficient. Rocketdyne engines for Atlas and Thor now cost 37 per cent less than in 1957. This $27 million saving from the $72 million cost in the "early" days of missile production has been achieved by what are called "normal manufacturing learning curves," design improvements, budgetary and production controls utilizing advanced electronic data-processing equipment, organizational innovations and special suggestion award and conservation programs.

They may also be caused by closer looks at expenses by watchdogs in and out of Congress, in and out of the armed services and in and out of the civilian research staffs.

Whatever the reason, the taxpayers should be glad to find that 10 per cent higher thrust engines are now being obtained at the rate of five Thor engines for the price of two on the eve of Sputnik; three Atlas propulsion systems—the first intercontinental ballistic missile engines—for the 1957 cost of two; and eight rocket engines for Saturn, the clustered, 1.5-million-pound-thrust space truck being delivered at the earlier cost of five of the predecessor engines for Jupiter.

The same pressures, from the public outside and the management inside, should continue to make an even better showing for the development of later engines.

Los Angeles Times

Barrett Man Speaks Up

Mr. Editor:

It was with surprise that I read where Monroe Countians were shocked to learn what happened in Barrett Township. There are some of us up here who have known for a great number of years that something like this was bound to happen.

We should be thankful that it only happened to just 14 boys instead of more. Let me tell you why.

These boys are from 15 to 17 years of age. We have many boys up here of that age — a lot more than 14. What have we done to help them get through these so-called "difficult teen years?"

Very little, I'm ashamed to say, Mr. Editor. Oh yes, we have a few dedicated people who have been doing their best to help, but so few. What do we give these boys to do here in Barrett?

Where can they go in their idle moments? Where can they release all of their bound-up energy? You see, Mr. Editor, we are a "rich" community up here assessed at almost eight million dollars.

We hear that all the time as we go around the county — "Barrett is rich." For several years now we have been trying to get a community recreational center and a professional adult-children recreational program started.

But in the past year both the School Board and the Township Supervisors told us we couldn't afford one because we didn't have the money. You see, there are 1,200 recreational programs run by the school board and/or the township supervisors in the State of Pennsylvania alone.

But Barrett can't afford one. They took a postcard poll last fall and the people voted against it. We couldn't afford it. Now, will someone please tell me how much a ruined life of one teen-ager costs? How much for 14?

At the recent Barrett Welfare Fund trustees' meeting, it was voted to drop the playground program and the community pool fund from the drive this coming year. Why?

Because we have had too many complaints from people that the drive was for too high a goal and neither of these belonged in the drive.

We here in Barrett, in the heart of the Poconos, the recreational center of the East, do not have a single place for our children to swim in the Summer months!

Factographs

The elaborate decorations on the armor worn by knights of the Middle Ages grew out of necessity for identifying the men behind their garb.

Gold is hardened by adding copper so that coins will not be worn away by handling.

Spoons were the earliest domestic utensil known.

—By E. Simms Campbell

Cheerful Little Earful!

George Sokolsky Says . . .

Smith, McCarthy

The images of Al Smith and Joe McCarthy rise to plague candidates for the Presidency in the 1960 campaign. Al Smith is recalled because of the Church and State issue in the 1928 election. Joe McCarthy is recalled because of his early fame as a protagonist of anti-Communism before Joe McCarthy seized that stage.

Al Smith was a simple man of the people who emerged from lowly environs to become a distinct personality, a Governor of the State of New York and a Democratic candidate for President.

He was in many respects a remarkable man, utterly independent, devotedly religious, unrelentingly patriotic.

It is difficult to say that, in 1928, Smith might have been elected President were he not a Roman Catholic. The country was going through a heightened boom; the stock market was running wild; everybody was rich.

The Harding and Coolidge Administrations permitted the economy of the country to give the feeling of unbelievable prosperity whereas, in fact, we were suffering from a runaway inflation.

Herbert Hoover had built an enormous reputation as a man of wisdom and probity, a successful engineer, a world food administrator, the first really significant Secretary of Commerce this country had ever had.

However, certain facts stand

Mirror of Time

—by C. H. WESTBROOK

10 Years Ago

Easter Parade on Fifth Ave., New York, saw many furs and topcoats as a cold north wind moved through the city.

American Red Cross made serum available to doctors of the nation in anticipation of a "peak" season for measles.

President Truman was attacked for government spending. Congressmen instituted legislation to reduce the legal national debt limit.

Members of Pi Tau Mu, Stroudsburg High School Mathematics Club, spent the day in New York City.

Department of Forests and Waters urged special care in the woods to prevent forest fires.

20 Years Ago

Norwegians in War — King Haakon calls on Sons of Vikings to protect new capital, Hamar. Germans set up puppet government in Oslo. Sweden continues neutrality. A naval battle raged in storm and fog of North Sea.

Lions — It was Schuykill Haven Night when a delegation of 18 Lions from Schuykill visited locally.

To Sing at World's Fair — The Stroudsburg Male Chorus under direction of Robert Hilton, has been invited to present a concert at the World's Fair.

Jr. Women — The Junior Women's Club will hold annual session at Stroud Community House on Tuesday evening, says the president, Mrs. Donald Gilpin.

out. When it was sure that Al Smith would be the Democratic candidate, Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, called a conference at Asheville, North Carolina, to organize the anti-Smith Democrats.

To be elected, Governor Smith had to carry the South. Involved in this campaign was not only Smith's Catholicism but the Prohibition issue.

Bishop Cannon was aggressively pro-Prohibition; Al Smith was anti-Prohibition. The Methodist Church had taken the lead in banning intoxicating liquor.

It was during the Al Smith campaign that the Ku Klux Klan again became politically active. The Klan was started in 1865 as a movement to rescue the South from carpetbaggers and Negroes. Originally, it included all Southerners, Jews, too, if they wished to belong.

When it was revived in 1915, in Atlanta, Georgia, its program was decidedly anti-Jewish and anti-Catholic.

As early as the 1924 Democratic Convention, the Democrats faced the problem of the Klan, the greatest strength of which was in the South. The Democrats had to have the Solid South to win.

The supporters of William Gibbs McAdoo for President were unwilling to have the Klan denounced and it was not denounced. The compromise candidate, John W. Davis, spoke out against the Klan.

Governor Smith did not take his failure in 1924 lying down. He got into a debate in the "Atlantic Monthly" in April 1928, with Charles Clinton Marshall, an Episcopalian lawyer, on the basic question of a religious test for a President. It was this debate which enhanced Al Smith's stature for courage and intellectual acumen.

Smith was violently fought not only on the religious issue but also by the Anti-Saloon League on the Prohibition issue. The Catholic Church, carefully and deliberately, stayed out of the fight. It is also to be noted that no matter how intense this quarrel became, there is no recorded notice of bloodshed.

Since 1928, this issue of a Presidential test has been dormant not dead. Various anti-Catholic and anti-Jewish organizations exist to oppose American individuals of Jewish or Catholic persuasion.

On the other hand, a number of "defense" organizations have come into existence to fight back against any form of discrimination. There are also Negro defense organizations.

The McCarthy issue is being dragged into this campaign by some supporters of Richard Nixon who fear that he may be regarded as too severely anti-Communist.

In addition to the McCarthy issue, some of the Democratic liberals are dragging into this campaign the Helen Gahagan Douglas campaign, when she ran for United States Senator in California and was defeated by Nixon.

Liberals think that they can make something of the Nixon-Douglas campaign. In fact, a play is being shown in New York in which Helen Gahagan Douglas's husband, Melvyn Douglas, stars, which is designed to do Nixon as much harm as a play on Broadway can do.

Much of the data in this article has been checked in an extremely valuable history entitled "Church and State in the United States," by Anson Phelps Stokes, formerly Secretary of Yale University.

Markin Time

In church we're taught the right and wrong; To walk the straight and narrow track; And if the church was twice as long, The folks could sit much farther back.

By Luther Markin

With Walter Winchell On Roadway

The Headlines

Amid the fiery bursts of stardust, the swaying charms of movie queens and the shimmer of a bib-and-tucker event, Charlton Heston added an appropriate dramatic touch to the Academy Award festivities.

He has offered a remarkable demonstration of the roller-coaster aspects of show business. . . . Only a few weeks ago, he was trapped in one of the Broadway season's worst disasters. It opened Wednesday and closed Saturday. Mr. Heston accepted the defeat with immense grace. He expressed regret for the critics who panned his show and added: "I went into this play to learn something more about acting and I did." He eventually emerged from the Broadway ashes to scale Hollywood's golden pinnacles.

Failure is a devil—but talent is on the side of the angels.

The finest tribute you can pay a newspaperman is simply to state that he is a good reporter. John Lardner, who passed the other day, was a good reporter. . . . Newsweek recalled that when he covered the Patterson-Johansson fight, everybody in the press room leaped to their feet when Johansson threw his electrifying haymaker. Lardner, however, sat quietly, making notes. When it was over, a sports-writer next to him said: "Wasn't that a heluva thing?"

"Seven," Lardner said. His puzzled colleague inquired: "Seven what?"

"Seven knockdowns," said John Lardner, reporter.

No man has made a more important contribution to our defense program than Admiral Hyman G. Rickover. Those who have served under him know he is a stern disciplinarian. Nevertheless, he has a fine sensibility. Some time ago he was informed that a horse named Rickover won a race at New York's Belmont Park.

Admiral Rickover promptly cracked: "No other admiral in history ever had a whole horse named after him."

In his autobiography, "Name and Address," T. S. Matthews (who was Time magazine's editor for many years) includes a devastating portrait of publisher Henry Luce: "I finally decided that what most drew me to Luce and made me feel that we had something in common was his guilty conscience. . . . I began to notice two of his mannerisms which I did not find endearing. One was his unintermittent, it may not be polite to interrupt, but among friends it is part of the natural give and take of conversation and not to yield to such interruptions can become mere roughshod rudeness. . . . His other peculiarity was the appropriation of any cigarette within his reach. I was sure this was only absentmindedness; all the same, it seemed to me another form of rudeness, an unawareness of other people."

Presidential campaigning is mighty arduous. One of the toughest chores consists of meeting and greeting hundreds of people. You must shake countless hands while keeping the smile fully ignited. It can be a dizzy-making process. FDR once told about the time he pumped the hand of the last person in a group, then, turning on the charm, boomed: "How nice to have seen you!"

The hand belonged to Mrs. FDR.

Several months ago Jack Paar attracted headlines when Debbie Reynolds yanked him behind his desk and removed several articles of clothing. Such a to-do. Paar feigned shock and dismay. You'd think it was all a Big Surprise. Actually, it was strictly an act. In an interview, Debbie has now confessed: "Before long Jack got the idea and began helping me. He took off his tie, and I threw that out where the audience could see it. Then I helped him take off his jacket and I tossed that out. He whispered 'Shall I take off my shirt?' and I said, 'No.' But by the time he was back up in sight he had three buttons of his shirt undone, and people were standing up in the studio screaming hysterically."

In other words, another phony paarlility stunt.

Some people wear years as a burden, others as a crown. Playwright Sean O'Casey, who just celebrated his 80th birthday, has made every year a gem. He is that rarity among humans—a happy man. And his happiness springs from a love of life. O'Casey once expressed his philosophy with three words: "Hurrah for life."

The Pennsylvania Story

Real Public Servant

By Mason Denison Harrisburg — His nickname is "Stackie."

His full name is Henry Reid Stackhouse.

His name appears in this column with good reason.

He would be the last to concede the point but the saga of Mr. Stackhouse is unique in many ways — but in one in particular.

Sportsmen throughout Pennsylvania — fishermen in particular — know "Stackie" well, either personally or by reputation.

What makes the saga of Henry Reid Stackhouse so unique and interesting insofar as Pennsylvania's fishermen are concerned should be equally interesting and unique for every one of Pennsylvania's eleven million residents who in one way or another have a stake in their elective government here in Harrisburg.

Mr. Stackhouse is acting executive director of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission and although the post of executive director of the commission is the top administrative post, it is not that fact that makes the Stackhouse saga unique.

Capitol Hill is loaded with such "top ranking officials" — each for the most part eager for whatever "step upward" might be in the offing.

At that time William Voigt, Jr., then executive director of the commission, following huffs and tiffs with commission members, submitted his resignation.

To fill the top post the commissioners named Mr. Stackhouse "acting" executive director, pulling him temporarily from his post as administrative secretary.

All of this so far is not too exceptional — but here are some points that seemingly place the Stackhouse case within the realm of the unusual and unique:

—On June 1 he will have completed 43 years of continuous service with the Pennsylvania Fish Commission;

—Throughout this near-half century of service with a single state agency he has watched one administration after another come and go — and watched administrations change from Republican to Democratic, from Democratic to Republican and back again from Republican to Democratic;

—He has never in any one year been "the outstanding sportsman of the state" but his value to the sportsmen of Pennsylvania over a long period of years has been established as the basis of this year's award.

—The high regard in which public servant "Stackie" is held is illustrated by the fact that sportsmen's organizations throughout the state have urged his appointment as full executive director. And — the Pennsylvania Fish Commission has offered him the top spot in that agency, but he has declined. We asked him why:

"I've had a full and compensating life with the commission; I'm not ambitious; I'm happy as I am," replied unusual public servant Henry Reid Stackhouse!

Conventional cuthroating political aspirants on Capitol Hill seemingly would do well to take a page from the Stackhouse notebook!

Stackhouse, as he prefers to be known and is so recorded officially in commission dockets, does not fall in this latter group.

Strangely as it may seem, he actually has rejected a promotion to the full top spot in the Fish Commission table of organization!

This curious and "unconventional" incident had its start back on Feb. 1 of this year.

At that time William Voigt, Jr., then executive director of the commission, following huffs and tiffs with commission members, submitted his resignation.

To fill the top post the commissioners named Mr. Stackhouse "acting" executive director, pulling him temporarily from his post as administrative secretary.

All of this so far is not too exceptional — but here are some points that seemingly place the Stackhouse case within the realm of the unusual and unique:

—On June 1 he will have completed 43 years of continuous service with the Pennsylvania Fish Commission;

—Throughout this near-half century of service with a single state agency he has watched one administration after another come and go — and watched administrations change from Republican to Democratic, from Democratic to Republican and back again from Republican to Democratic;

—He has never in any one year been "the outstanding sportsman of the state" but his value to the sportsmen of Pennsylvania over a long period of years has been established as the basis of this year's award.

—The high regard in which public servant "Stackie" is held is illustrated by the fact that sportsmen's organizations throughout the state have urged his appointment as full executive director. And — the Pennsylvania Fish Commission has offered him the top spot in that agency, but he has declined. We asked him why:

"I've had a full and compensating life with the commission; I'm not ambitious; I'm happy as I am," replied unusual public servant Henry Reid Stackhouse!

Conventional cuthroating political aspirants on Capitol Hill seemingly would do well to take a page from the Stackhouse notebook!

Stackhouse, as he prefers to be known and is so recorded officially in commission dockets, does not fall in this latter group.

Strangely as it may seem, he actually has rejected a promotion to the full top spot in the Fish Commission table of organization!

This curious and "unconventional" incident had its start back on Feb. 1 of this year.

At that time William Voigt, Jr., then executive director of the commission, following huffs and tiffs with commission members, submitted his resignation.

To fill the top post the commissioners named Mr. Stackhouse "acting" executive director, pulling him temporarily from his post as administrative secretary.

All of this so far is not too exceptional — but here are some points that seemingly place the Stackhouse case within the realm of the unusual and unique:

—On June 1 he will have completed 43 years of continuous service with the Pennsylvania Fish Commission;

Stackhouse, as he prefers to be known and is so recorded officially in commission dockets, does not fall in this latter group.

Strangely as it may seem, he actually has rejected a promotion to the full top spot in the Fish Commission table of organization!

This curious and "unconventional" incident had its start back on Feb. 1 of this year.

At that time William Voigt, Jr., then executive director of the commission, following huffs and tiffs with commission members, submitted his resignation.

To fill the top post the commissioners named Mr. Stackhouse "acting" executive director, pulling him temporarily from his post as administrative secretary.

All of this so far is not too exceptional — but here are some points that seemingly place the Stackhouse case within the realm of the unusual and unique:

—On June 1 he will have completed 43 years of continuous service with the Pennsylvania Fish Commission;

—Throughout this near-half century of service with a single state agency he has watched one administration after another come and go — and watched administrations change from Republican to Democratic, from Democratic to Republican and back again from Republican to Democratic;

—He has never in any one year been "the outstanding sportsman of the state" but his value to the sportsmen of Pennsylvania over a long period of years has been established as the basis of this year's award.

—The high regard in which public servant "Stackie" is held is illustrated by the fact that sportsmen's organizations throughout the state have urged his appointment as full executive director. And — the Pennsylvania Fish Commission has offered him the top spot in that agency, but he has declined. We asked him why:

"I've had a full and compensating life with the commission; I'm not ambitious; I'm happy as I am," replied unusual public servant Henry Reid Stackhouse!

Conventional cuthroating political aspirants on Capitol Hill seemingly would do well to take a page from the Stackhouse notebook!

Stackhouse, as he prefers to be known and is so recorded officially in commission dockets, does not fall in this latter group.

Strangely as it may seem, he actually has rejected a promotion to the full top spot in the Fish Commission table of organization!

This curious and "unconventional" incident had its start back on Feb. 1 of this year.

At that time William Voigt, Jr., then executive director of the commission, following huffs and tiffs with commission members, submitted his resignation.

To fill the top post the commissioners named Mr. Stackhouse "acting" executive director, pulling him temporarily from his post as administrative secretary.

All of this so far is not too exceptional — but here are some points that seemingly place the Stackhouse case within the realm of the unusual and unique:

—On June 1 he will have completed 43 years of continuous service with the Pennsylvania Fish Commission;

—Throughout this near-half century of service with a single state agency he has watched one administration after another come and go — and watched administrations change from Republican to Democratic, from Democratic to Republican and back again from Republican to Democratic;

—He has never in any one year been "the outstanding sportsman of the state" but his value to the sportsmen of Pennsylvania over a long period of years has been established as the basis of this year's award.

—The high regard in which public servant "Stackie" is held is illustrated by the fact that sportsmen's organizations throughout the state have urged his appointment as full executive director. And — the Pennsylvania Fish Commission has offered him the top spot in that agency, but he has declined. We asked him why:

"I've had a full and compensating life with the commission; I'm not ambitious; I'm happy as I am," replied unusual public servant Henry Reid Stackhouse!

Conventional cuthroating political aspirants on Capitol Hill seemingly would do well to take a page from the Stackhouse notebook!

Stackhouse, as he prefers to be known and is so recorded officially in commission dockets, does not fall in this latter group.

Strangely as it may seem, he actually has rejected a promotion to the full top spot in the Fish Commission table of organization!

This curious and "unconventional" incident had its start back on Feb. 1 of this year.

At that time William Voigt, Jr., then executive director of the commission, following huffs and tiffs with commission members, submitted his resignation.

To fill the top post the commissioners named Mr. Stackhouse "acting" executive director, pulling him temporarily from his post as administrative secretary.

All of this so far is not too exceptional — but here are some points that seemingly place the Stackhouse case within the realm of the unusual and unique:

—On June 1 he will have completed 43 years of continuous service with the Pennsylvania Fish Commission;

—Throughout this near-half century of service with a single state agency he has watched one administration after another come and go — and watched administrations change from Republican to Democratic, from Democratic to Republican and back again from Republican to Democratic;

—He has never in any one year been "the outstanding sportsman of the state" but his value to the sportsmen of Pennsylvania over a long period of years has been established as the basis of this year's award.

—The high regard in which public servant "Stackie" is held is illustrated by the fact that sportsmen's organizations throughout the state have urged his appointment as full executive director. And — the Pennsylvania Fish Commission has offered him the top spot in that agency, but he has declined. We asked him why:

"I've had a full and compensating life with the commission; I'm not ambitious; I'm happy as I am," replied unusual public servant Henry Reid Stackhouse!

Conventional cuthroating political aspirants on Capitol Hill seemingly would do well to take a page from the Stackhouse notebook!

The Allen-Scott Report

More TV-Radio Curbs

By Robert S. Allen and Paul Scott

Washington — The radio-TV networks and stations are headed for more bad news.

Two bills that would subject them to tougher government controls and penalties have been drafted at private meetings by the House Interstate Commerce Committee, headed by Rep. Owen Harris (D-Ark.), who has been directing the headline-making investigation of the Federal Communications Commission.

A third measure, to establish a statutory "code of conduct" for all the regulatory agencies, is still under consideration. Chief committee stumbling block is how to effectively legislate against "conflict of interests."

Principal provisions of the two bills cracking down on the radio-TV industry would: Require the networks to be licensed — for the first time. Prohibit the sale of a radio or TV station for three years after a change in ownership.

Bar payments to an applicant to withdraw from a contested radio-TV licensing case. Empower the FCC to suspend station licenses up to 10 days — a new policing authority. The commission can now revoke a license, but has never done so.

Make payola and deceptive programming a crime. Plugs for individuals and products also would be made illegal unless expressly labeled as such.

Rep. Harris' backstage strategy is to incorporate these radio-TV proposals in other measures already passed by the Senate and pending in his committee. Purpose of this procedure is to strengthen the chances of getting Senate action on the radio-TV legislation.

So far, nothing has been done there on this. Despite

Interpreting The News

May Resolve Issues

By Kenneth Ishii

TOKYO (AP) — Japan and the Republic of Korea, two of America's strongest Asian allies, appear to be making headway toward patching up their strife-torn relations.

The moves can bring only delight to Washington, long concerned over the quarrel between the two U.S. friends.

The controversy has defied settlement in sporadic negotiations for the past seven years and has gladdened Asia's Communists.

What some describe as the weakest link in Asian security now seems to be strengthened by the decision to reopen talks for normal relations April 15.

A total settlement admittedly still is a long way off, but many observers agree that this time the chances of success are greater than ever before.

They reason: 1. South Korea and Japan have just concluded an agreement for mutual release of detained nationals, mostly fishermen, thus clearing away a major cause of bitterness.

2. Japan has accepted a request from the Seoul government to buy 30,000 tons of Korean rice.

3. Seoul has notified Tokyo it is lifting the ban on Japanese trade. The ban was imposed last June in retaliation for Japan's decision to repatriate Koreans here to Communist North Korea on a voluntary basis.

Established April 2, 1894
HORACE C. HELLER

SAFETY FIRST—Checking wench of a five ton truck, used in "Operation Pocono" at Tobyhanna Signal Depot yesterday, to make sure the safety features are working properly are (left to right) Marine Cpl. Edward Bevans, Cresco; Pfc. Dale Price, Cresco; S/Sgt. James Shafer, Stroudsburg. Man under the truck is Pfc. Harvey Lyons, Snyder'sville. (Official U. S. Marine Photo)

Four Plead Guilty To Turkey Theft

FOUR Northampton County men pleaded guilty Saturday to the theft of 18 turkeys during February from the farm of J. P. Tucker, Saylorsburg RD, in Monroe County Court.

Three of the four men were given three to 18-month sentences plus $100 fines, while the fourth was given a $200 fine and no sentence.

The three given the sentences were Robert E. Michael, 34, Linden St., Easton; Larry Folkner, 19, also of Linden St., Easton and Harry J. Garren, 28, Bangor RD 3. The fourth man, fined $200, was Lawrence R. Getz, 21, Easton RD 2, who, it was alleged, is AWOL from the Army.

In a second case heard, Walter Thomas Speight, Easton, pleaded guilty to a charge of fornication and bastardy and was ordered to pay hospital expenses, $75.00 a week toward the support of the child plus a $50 fine.

Hospital Notes

Births

Son to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kropp, Mount Bethel; daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kuhnecker, Henryville RD 1; son to Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Michael, Stroudsburg.

Admissions

Rev. John Sullivan, Tobyhanna; Mrs. Margaret Cyphers, Stroudsburg; Mrs. Rita LaBar, Stroudsburg; James Nordmark, Saylorsburg; Mrs. Ruth Wilson, Ashbury RD, N.J.; Jean Geisinger, Colonial Beach, Va.; Walter Hoffman, East Stroudsburg RD 3; Mrs. Edna Gordon, East Stroudsburg; Harold Ranke, Tobyhanna RD 1.

Discharges

Mrs. Carol Dailey and daughter, Stroudsburg; Mrs. Madeline Koenen and son, Scioto; Mrs. Betty Nasatka and son, Mount Bethel; Harry Hartman, Delaware Water Gap; Conrad Terbosch, East Stroudsburg; Mrs. Anna Russen, East Stroudsburg; James Possinger, Stroudsburg; Robert Zeigler, Canadensis; Patrick Communiello, Stroudsburg; Chauncey Williams, Saylorsburg; Mary Wismer, Stroudsburg; Rose Bozett, East Stroudsburg; Mrs. Monique Elnoff, East Stroudsburg; Tina Palmisano, Stroudsburg; Lawrence Ashton Jr., Stroudsburg; Mrs. Flossie Delp, Bangor; Cyrus Smith, East Stroudsburg; Mrs. Edna Strouse, Bangor RD 3; Susan Kovarick, Stroudsburg RD 3; Clem Chesney, Buck Hill Falls; August Rohe, Stroudsburg; Sylvia Werkheiser, Stroudsburg RD 3; Wilson MacIntyre, East Stroudsburg RD 1; John Bachman, Marshalls Creek.

Area Artists Plan Meeting

THE Pocono Mountains Art Group will meet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Stroud Union High School.

WVPO RADIO

MONDAY, APRIL 11

9:30 DESIGN FOR LIVING — Rev. Robert Zuch, today's guest speaker.

10:30 SALLY FERREBEE SHOW — 6th Grade Class of Campus Lab School sings for Easter.

1:25 EXHIBITION BASEBALL — Yankees and Boston.

4:05 MUSICAL SCOREBOARD — quality music & scores 'til 6:00.

6:30 SPOTLIGHT ON AN ARTIST — Norman Luboff Choir with songs of the '30's.

PUC Checks Power Firm Earnings

HARRISBURG (AP)—The earnings powers of Pennsylvania's 13 largest electrical utilities are being checked by the Public Utility Commission, chairman Leon Schwartz said Saturday.

"We realize that earnings have been moving up with most of the companies," said Schwartz. "We just want to make sure that none of them begins earning excessively."

He said the commission voted at its March 7 meeting to have the companies file by April 30 a report of their earnings for the first three months of the year.

"Although labor costs have been rising, larger and more efficient generating stations are putting power into the lines at less expense each year," Schwartz continued.

Less Equipment

"Pooling of output among the companies has also cut down sharply on the need for standby equipment."

Base rates vary in different areas from $6.48 for 250 kilowatt hours residential service in Philadelphia, to $11.75 for the same service in the Allegheny County borough of Etna, by the borough's system, which is not among the 13 largest.

Other rates, compiled by the Federal Power Commission and on file with the PUC, show Pennsylvania Power and Light charges $8.40 for the same services in Harrisburg, Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre, Allentown and Bethlehem.

Metropolitan Edison was charging its customers in Easton, Reading and York $6.50.

Philadelphia Electric charges its suburban customers $7.52 against $6.48 for its city customers.

In Pittsburgh, Duquesne Light Co. rates at $6.95.

Three Named To Office At Session

HARRISBURG—Representatives of East Stroudsburg State College attending last weekend's annual Intercollegiate Conference on Government in Harrisburg, secured three offices during the meeting.

The three students elected to office were Sandra Stadler, assistant parliamentarian; Sylvia Dalmeyer, assistant clerk, and John J. Meany, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

Additional offices secured were given Meany and John Rock as Northeast Regional Publicity Directors for 1961.

Others attending the affair were Linda Wolfe, David McCarty, Robert Scull and Dr. Kirt Wimer, as faculty adviser.

Speakers at the meeting which included participants from major colleges and universities throughout the State were Gov. David L. Lawrence, U. S. Senator Gale W. McGee, (D-Wyo.), and Robert K. Gray, secretary to President Eisenhower's cabinet.

The conference was conducted as a model political convention and the group nominated Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) as their presidential candidate.

Britain Rebukes South Africa

LONDON (AP)—Britain sharply rebuked South Africa for its racial policies.

The House of Commons, without a dissent, voted to put its sister nation on the carpet at next month's conference of British Commonwealth prime ministers.

All parties voted a motion urging South Africa to come to terms with the situation before there are more blood baths.

Pocono Chorus To Rehearse

POCONO Male Chorus will rehearse today at 8 p.m. in the home of George Dodd.

Prior to rehearsal a short business meeting will be held to take action on several important matters.

OUR HOMEOWNERS' POLICY ...

Gives You Complete Protection

- The dwelling
- Private outbuildings on the same premises
- Personal property on the premises
- Personal property away from the Premises
- Additional living expense and rental value
- Comprehensive personal liability including medical payments.

Security with Savings

Up To 20% ...
Inquire Today!

CROWE
INSURANCE AGENCY
100 Wash. St. Phone HA 1-3535
East Stroudsburg

Game Commission Survey

Winter Deer Kill Just Above Normal

THE winter kill of deer during the February-March period of continuous deep snow and extreme cold probably will not greatly exceed that of an average winter in Pennsylvania, field reports to the Game Commission headquarters on April 5 indicated generally.

Reports of dead deer are being checked out and surveys are being conducted by Game Commission field officers and research personnel. Particular attention is being given the heavily wooded areas in northern counties, where natural food for big game animals was less plentiful than in most other areas.

The results of these inquiries will be published as soon as a reasonable estimate of the winter loss can be determined. Reports by persons traveling in out-of-the-way places, and by fishermen when the trout season opens on April 16, will be investigated. This will overcome the duplication that occurs when several persons report the same deer carcasses, as well as provide desired information.

The recent field reports from northern counties, where winter conditions were most severe, carried these comments on the subject:

Most of the snow is gone. The moderation in temperature during the last two weeks had reduced the drain on the vitality of the deer. Most on the forest floor is again available.

Some dead deer are being found, but the number is not alarming. It appears that the severe weather ended just in time. Most of the deer known to have died last winter were fawns. The deer kill by dogs was twice as great as during the previous winter, and this situation is still serious.

Field reports on wild turkeys were encouraging. A few dead turkeys have been found in some northern localities. Some of the weakened birds were held in pens until strong again, then released. But the flock is considered adequate, with little reduction from the number at the close of season last year.

Authorities Hunt Dog Which Bit Young Girl

MARGARET Mary Mannhaupt, seven and one-half years old, was bitten on the hand by a strange dog Saturday at 3 p.m. at the corner of Broadhead Ave. and E. Brown St., East Stroudsburg.

It is not known if the dog is a carrier of rabies and East Stroudsburg police, as well as the parents, are looking for the dog. They ask that anyone having any information about the dog or saw the child bitten to notify them immediately.

The dog was described as black, with a white nose, white paws and of medium size.

It is believed, by authorities, that there are no mad dogs in the county. However, if any dogs have been acting strangely lately it is recommended to tie the dog and have a veterinary observe the dog for signs of the disease.

The incubation period for rabies to develop in the human body is approximately 21 days and the treatment is costly and can cause serious illness to the patient.

The little girl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mannhaupt, East Stroudsburg.

Herbert LaBar, 45, Dies In Veterans Hospital

HERBERT D. LaBAR, 45, of Minisink Hills, died Saturday in the Veterans Administration Hospital, Castle Point, N.Y. He had been in failing health for the past five years.

He is the son of Mrs. Romaine LaBar, of Minisink Hills, and the late Bert LaBar.

Mr. LaBar attended Stroudsburg High School and lived in Dingmans Ferry for many years where he was employed as caretaker of Camp Massad Beth.

He was a veteran of World War Two, serving in Europe with the U. S. Army.

In addition to his mother he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Roberta Gilliland, East Stroudsburg; Mrs. Betty Lou Smeltz, Ansonia, Conn.; and Miss Leanna LaBar, East Stroudsburg; six grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Martha Smith, Marshalls Creek; Jean Heeter and Janet LaBar, both of Minisink Hills; two brothers, Walter F. LaBar, East Stroudsburg RD 1; and Harold S. LaBar, East Stroudsburg.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Lanterman Funeral Home with Rev. Harold C. Eaton officiating. Interment will be in the Bushkill Cemetery.

Friends and relatives may call at the funeral home Wednesday after 7 p.m.

County Temperatures

Stroudsburg	Time	Mount Pocono
38	6:30 a.m.	30
40	8:30	30
40	10:30	33
46	12:30 p.m.	37
48	2:30	37
50	4:30	39
38	6:30	34
37	8:30	30
32	10:30	26

Forecasts—Mostly sunny and warmer today. High 40-45. Sun rises 5:27 a.m., sets 6:35 p.m. Moon rises 7:44 p.m.

Cemetery Memorials

A family monument is a family decision that should be made NOW!

Stroudsburg Granite Co.
Truman Burnett, Owner
Main St. at Dreier Ave. HA 1-3591

Two Autos Crash Near Mt. Pocono

TOBYHANNA—A two-car accident on Route 940, three miles west of Mount Pocono, was reported by Mount Pocono State Police yesterday.

Investigators reported a car driven by Miss Lynn E. Lanbergaies, 18, of Stanhope RD 1, N. J. was following a car driven by George Coffin, 35, 1231 Telford Lane, Bethlehem, when the Coffin car struck a slippery spot, skidded and was struck in the rear by the Lanbergaies auto.

There were no injuries, but the Coffin car was damaged in the amount of $200. No estimate was given for the Lanbergaies car.

Malta Knights Meet Tuesday

THE regular convocation of St. John's Commandery, 186, A. & I. O., Knights of Malta, will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the lodge rooms of the Malta Temple, Stroudsburg.

Claude S. Cyphers, sir knight commander, urged all members to be present at the convocation to act on important business of the lodge.

Australia, smallest of the continents, covers 2,948,366 square miles.

EAT BETTER FOR LESS...

Made for Modern Freezer Living
Guaranteed to Outperform ...
Outlast all Others

Amana
Stor-Mor
FOOD FREEZERS

... with an
AMANA FREEZER filled with HELLER'S
CHOICE MEATS
and
FROZEN FOODS

You can Pay more ... but you can't get a better
FREEZER

You Can't Get Better Food
And You Can't Beat Local Service backed by many years in the food business.

COMPARE OUR PRICES BEFORE
YOU BUY!

Call HA 1-8484
HARRY HELLER

For Full Details of a Food Plan Tailored To Your Needs
613 N. Courtland St.
East Stroudsburg

River Dam Hearing Set This Week

THE first of four hearings on the Corps of Engineers plan for the construction of dams on the Delaware River will be held in Phillipsburg, N.J., Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the high school.

The object of the hearings is to inform those interested of the results of the two-year study by the engineers on the resources of the river.

The fourth hearing is scheduled for Port Jervis, N.Y.

Freas To Speak To Tall Cedars

C. BURNETT Freas, supreme tall cedar of the United States, will be the main speaker at the meeting of the Tall Cedars of Lebanon Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Odd Fellows Hall, Stroudsburg.

This will be an open meeting and all Master Masons are invited to attend.

E. BUNNY SAYS:
To assure that you'll look your best this Easter bring your Dry cleaning and shirts to ...

Open Friday 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.
BRITE
1hr DRIVE IN CLEANERS shirt service
735 MAIN STREET, STROUDSBURG
Where Parking is Never a Problem

Open Mon., Tues., Wed., Thurs. And Sat. 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Coins Wanted
Fabulous Cash Prices
Paid For
Gold, Silver, Nickels and Bronze Coins ... Anything numismatic that has a premium. It will pay you to contact me before selling.

Ettore R. Chiappa
344 E. Brown St.
East Stroudsburg, Pa.

Newberry's

Men's Wash N' Wear SHIRTS
Newberry's Low Price
Little or no ironing needed.
White and Colors
100% Cotton
Sizes 14 1/2 to 16 1/2
88c
Reg. 1.19

Ladies Spring DRESSES
Newberry's Low Price
Fancy trim
Pastel Colors
Many Styles to choose from Sizes 3-6-7-14
3.33
Reg. 3.98

Men's T-SHIRTS
Newberry's Low Price
2 For 99c
Quality Combed Cotton
Fullout for Comfort, Shrink Resist
Guaranteed for full year. 100% cotton

Sailcloth and Poplin
Newberry's Low Price
36" x 45" wide
Sportswear Patterns
Crease Resistant
Wash 'N Wear
All Cotton
52c
Reg. 69c yd.

PURSES
Newberry's Low Price
Quality Styling
New Colors
Small & Large
Types
2.44
Reg. 2.98

LUNCHEONETTE SPECIAL
Frankfurters with Oven Baked Beans. Chilled Sliced Tomatoes on Crisp Lettuce Leaf, roll, butter
Newberry's Low Price
49c
A 60c Value

It's Easy To Open A Newberry Charge Account

Just Between Us —

—By Bobby Westbrook

Among the predictions for the world of tomorrow are great plastic domes under which man can raise cities and farms with a climate just to his liking. Well, we didn't have to wait for tomorrow—we had it all here on Saturday.

I'm still lost in wonder and admiration at the ingenuity of our local women in creating worlds of their own, out of colored paper and imagination.

The Junior Woman's Club bazaar was fantastic. Customers spent the first half hour wondering around in a daze at what they had accomplished. Not so the children who tagged the Easter bunny around and kept helping themselves from the lollipop tree, and wanting to walk off with the ducks in the duck pond instead of the prize it represented.

It was a tremendous success and all of the Junior Women have earned the right to a week of breakfast in bed. Except now that the pressure's off they'll probably be spending the week catching up on all the family chores which have piled up while they worked on the bazaar.

Hawaii is an enchanted place to visit at any time but never more so than on a gold and windy Saturday night when it was transplanted to the Hunsicker home, complete even to the gold fish swimming in the fluted shell which formed part of the table decorations.

The Hunsicker's home—contemporary with Oriental touches in the bamboo lamps, the driftwood sculpture, hanging panels and even the furniture which Dr. Lew has made — lent itself spectacularly to the Hawaiian theme. And even the family dog wore a lei.

In fact, the whole weekend was spectacular — up to, but not including Sunday afternoon in the office, when, wrapped up in borrowed sweaters and coats, I tried to type with gloves on while the furnace was off. Only thing tropical about that climate was my temper.

The Baby's Named!

THE DAILY RECORD congratulates the parents and introduces to its readers the following new babies:

Roxanne Rene Lockwitch

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lockwitch of Route 1, Stroudsburg, announce the birth of a daughter, Roxanne Rene, on April 4 at the General Hospital. She weighed seven pounds one ounce. They have two older children, Deborah Jean, 8 and James 6½.

Mrs. Lockwitch is the former Marion Papillon, daughter of Mrs. Hazel Papillon of Stroudsburg and the late George Papillon. Paternal grandparents are Mrs. Hazel Lockwitch of Phillipsburg, N.J. and the late John Lockwitch.

Frederick Raymond Buskirk

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buskirk of 18 East Main St., Pen Argyl on April 3 at the General Hospital. He weighed seven pounds 14 ounces and has been named Frederick Raymond. They have a daughter, Roxanne, who is two years seven months old.

Mrs. Buskirk is the former Violet Frey. Paternal grandmother is Mrs. Hattie Buskirk of Wind Gap RD 1.

Diana Joyce Batzel

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Batzel of Canadensis on April 2, weighing seven pounds one ounce. They have three sons: Harry Jr., 10½; John, 6; and Barry 3. The new baby will be named Diana Joyce.

Mrs. Batzel is the former Joyce Elizabeth Uhl. Grandparents are Mrs. Elizabeth Uhl of Tampa, Fla., Foster Uhl of Philadelphia and Mrs. Violet Batzel of Canadensis.

Russell A. Koenen

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koenen announce the birth of a son, Russell A., on April 2 at the General Hospital. He weighed seven pounds ten ounces. They have three older children: Charles, 6; Bruce, 3; and Nancy, 2.

Mrs. Koenen is the former Madeline Brannin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brannin of Madison, N.J. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. L.

Mrs. Charles William Abbey

(Lens Art)

Miss Nancy Ann Hughes Is Bride Of Lt. C.W. Abbey

Bangor — Miss Nancy Ann Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ivor Hughes of 120 South Second St., Bangor, was married on Saturday afternoon at 2 at the First Methodist Church, Bangor, to Charles William Abbey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robert Abbey of 280 Roycroft Boulevard, Snyder, N.Y.

Rev. Howard N. Reeves Jr. performed the ceremony. Karen Jones was organist, and a reception was held at Ross Common Manor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white pure silk peau de soie with the bodice and skirt heavily appliqued in hand re-embroidered Alencon lace. It had a scoop neckline etched in lace and brief sleeves. The bell-shaped skirt ended in a court train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held in place by a Dior bow of peau de soie. She carried a cascade bouquet of white Fuji mums.

Miss Kay Hughes was maid of honor and wore a gown of white Swiss eyel embroidery with an orchid sash and carried a colonial bouquet of purple violets and white hyacinths.

The bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Abbey of Snyder, N. Y., Miss Betty Hoffman of Clarks Summit, and Miss Nancy Suwalski of Lyndwood, Wilkes-Barre were similarly attired. The dresses had scoop necklines and brief sleeves. The bell-shaped skirts were cocktail length and they were matching orchid Satin Dior bows on their hair with fly away circle veils of illusion.

by georai

James Robert Abbey of State College was best man. Ushers were Harry Barton, 1632 33rd St., N. W., Washington, D. C.; Robert Bridge, State College and Thur Young of Austin, Pa.

The bride was graduated from Bloomsburg State College and is teaching third grade in the Abington Twp. School District.

Mr. Abbey, a lieutenant in the U.S. Army is a graduate of the Pennsylvania State University School of Forestry, where he was a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity and editor of Forestry Yearbook.

They are now honeymooning in Nassau.

Cleaning Day, Meeting Set For WSCS

South Sterling — Two dates of interest to members of the Women's Society of Christian Service have been announced by the president, Mrs. Norris Scott.

First on the WSCS calendar is cleaning day, April 12. Members are asked to join Mrs. Scott in housecleaning the hall beginning at 9 a.m. Those who plan to help out should bring a covered dish for lunch.

The following day, April 13, at 1:30 p.m., the WSCS will have its April business meeting and program at the hall. Quilting will continue throughout the day, as well.

Salem Guild Adds Projects

Gilbert — The Women's Guild of Salem United Church of Christ adopted the Make-a-Bed project for 1960 whereby the members will donate articles to make a bed to be sent to Church World Service. They also voted to donate $5 to the Cancer Fund.

Delegates were named to the Synodical Women's Guild Conference to be held at Hellertown on April 27. The regional meeting will be held at Trachsville on May 14.

The Mother and Daughter Banquet of the local guild is scheduled for May 10.

Theme of the program was "Discipline and Meditation," led by Rosa Shupp, assisted by Joanne Altemose, Marion Mackes, Molly Kresge and Lydia Delbert. Joanne Altemose was pianist. Kathryn Snyder was in charge of the business meeting.

In addition to those named above, members attending were Carrie Dunning, Edna Dunning, Ruth Kregger, Esther Hendry, Beulah Gregory, Betty Kregger, Margaret Schubert, Lillian Kregger, Marjorie Eckman, Emma Metzler, Stella Kregger, Pauline Frable, Mabel Michael, Jennie Burger, Marjane Everett, Marguerite Schultz and Elizabeth Shupp.

Annette Frances LeBar

Their first child, a daughter, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. LeBar of 82 East Broad St., East Stroudsburg, on April 6 at the General Hospital. She weighed six pounds 15 ounces and has been named Annette Frances.

Mrs. LeBar is the former Martha Mary Lockwitch. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John LeBar of 76 Lackawanna Ave., East Stroudsburg.

Don Allen Fritz

Their first child, a son, was born to Ray and Kay Fritz of Saylorburg RD 1 on April 4 at the General Hospital. He weighed nine pounds 8½ ounces and has been named Don Allen.

Mrs. Fritz is the former Kay Louise Frehulfer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Frehulfer of Saylorburg. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Fritz, also of Saylorburg RD 1.

Hunsicker Home Setting For Hawaiian Luau

With their husbands forming a Hawaiian band, the Whines of the Poconos held a luau at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Hunsicker, Berwick Heights Road on Saturday night. The ukelele band led by Dr. Hunsicker and his guitar provided the accompaniment to the Hawaiian dances by the club members.

In addition to the hula, the program also stressed some of the "ancient" sit-down dances using single and double bamboos and gourds.

The buffet table bearing Hawaiian dishes had as its centerpiece tropical leaves and flowers over a giant shell in which swam real goldfish. Strings of tiny Japanese lights decorated the driftwood sculpture and palm trees and orchids flanked the "stage" above the sunken living room.

Dinner was eaten at low tables with bright cushions for seats.

Members and their guests present were Mr. and Mrs. John Shinn, and their house guests, Col. and Mrs. Richard Rothwell of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. James Kitson and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jacobs of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shinn; Mr. and Mrs. Parke Kunkle; Mr. and Mrs. A. Byrd McDowell; Dr. and Mrs. T. I. Metzgar; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Titus; Mr. and Mrs. M. Stiles Baldwin; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Butler; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newkirk; Mr. and Mrs. James Barthold; Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Jones; Mrs. Horace Westbrook and the Hunsickers and their two sons.

It was an all-out endeavor using all of the club members — their husbands, friends, and the world at large. Committees have been working since early

Gym Exhibit Scores At Junior High

The students of the physical education classes of the East Stroudsburg Junior High School presented a varied program of their various activities at J. M. Hill School recently.

In the morning at a regular assembly the girls presented their part of the program. At night, to a crowded house of parents and friends, the program was presented again.

The girls were directed by Mrs. Anne Olenick, assisted by student teachers Mary Sue Wallace, Barbara Devlin, Betsy Loehner and Shirley Pruner. The boys were directed by Douglas Schoonover, assisted by Bob Moyer, Bill Barrett, Dick Achmauck, Joe Martin.

All of the girls of the junior high school participated. There were 225 of them and many of them wore costumes they had made.

Eighth grade girls presented a precision marching routine followed by a Swedish calisthenics drill by the seventh grade girls. Some eighth grade girls attired like residents of Dogpatch did Abner.

Scout relay races provided some excitement and was followed by an Irish dance by girls of the ninth grade.

Other ninth grade girls performed a Dutch dance.

The only boys in the dancing program were some seventh grade boys who joined the girls in a square dance.

Other drills included a Jump Rope drill, Patty Cake Polka, and a Hoopa Hoopa drill. The girls ended their part with tumbling exercises and the formation of pyramids.

The eighth grade boys did a calisthenics drill and Ninth grade boys concluded with a tumbling act.

Portland WSCS Re-Elects All Officers

Portland — All officers of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church were re-elected at the April meeting held at the home of Mrs. Russell Reimer.

Mrs. John Ribble is president; Miss Ruth Williams, vice president; Mrs. Fred Gardner, recording secretary; Mrs. Nick Ervey, promotion secretary; Mrs. Harry Bellis, treasurer; Miss Ruth Williams, missionary education; Mrs. R. W. Beeseker, supplies.

Mrs. John Ribble reported on the Ingathering at the Pen Argyl Methodist Church and the work at the Deaconess Home in Philadelphia.

Miss Williams read a poem and article on Easter and Mrs. Ribble accompanied the singing. Refreshments were served to the ten members and one visitor present.

Memorial Tonight

The officers and members of Monroe Council 131 are requested to meet in a body at the Lanterman Funeral Home tonight at 7:15 to conduct memorial services for the late Florence Westbrook.

Fire Aux. Tuesday

Marshall's Creek Fire Co. Aux. will meet at the firehouse on Tuesday night at 8 p.m. Mrs. E. Holt Wyckoff Jr. will be the guest speaker and will show slides and tell of her trip to Russia.

AFRICAN VIOLETS

A Large Assortment of Varieties Also Violet Soil and Food

J. L. WILLIAMS

Appliance Store

122 Main St. Stroudsburg

Smooth Sailing On Wash-Days Here

Prove to Yourself What a great Convenience and Marvellous Saving it is to use our modern Self-Service Laundry.

1/2 Hour Does Your Whole Weeks Wash

SELF-SERVICE LAUNDRY

3 Crystal St. East Stroudsburg

FREE

An educational film (full color and sound, complete with operator, screen and projector) to all ORGANIZATIONS, MEN AND WOMEN'S CLUBS, CHURCHES AND OTHER GROUPS

Running Time 22 Min.

For Reservations Call Ernest Bartleson, HA 1-4426

Between 4:30 P.M. & 6:00 P.M. or

CAP THEATRE Pen Argyl, PA 18059

Fri.-Sat. or Mon. Eve

Family Fare

by Bobby Westbrook

Around The World Bazaar Hailed As Out-Of-This-World Success By Juniors

Well over $1,000 was realized from the "Around the World Bazaar" held on Saturday from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. by the Junior Woman's Club at the American Legion Aux. The sum may go even higher when the final tabulation is made.

However, the committee headed by Mrs. Peter Wyckoff with Mrs. Richard MacDonough and Mrs. Nelson Lightner, was triumphant over the success of the project, the proceeds of which will be used for the welfare work of the club.

It was an all-out endeavor using all of the club members — their husbands, friends, and the world at large. Committees have been working since early fall: collecting gifts from famous persons, sewing, knitting, hammering, and dreaming up ideas.

A false ceiling of glue and yellow streamers formed a canopy over the Legion Auditorium surrounded by booths, each decorated for a different country and manned by Junior Women in the costumes of that country. Practically every booth was sold out by closing time and the hall was thronged throughout the day.

The baked goods and candy booths were probably the biggest money makers, but the handwriting booth and portrait sketching booth had lines of customers waiting.

The bazaar also was a circus for the children with the Easter bunny and Mickey Mouse to greet them, Uncle Sam to hand out souvenir pennies, and a lollipop tree and a fish pond.

Art lovers, too, had a brisk day. In concealed bids, Joseph McCluskey was awarded a Peter Heiden and Larry Levy an Edna Palmer Engelhardt painting.

Other artists whose paintings sold at the show were Alice Sutton, Phyllis Rubin and Henry Evans.

Musis was provided by Mr. Sleep, his daughter, and Mrs. Michael Chaffier throughout the day, and the refreshment booth was busy with both lunches and snacks.

The Music Study Club of the Stroudsburg will have excerpts from the operas at their meeting to be held Tuesday night at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ann George, White Heron Lake, Marshalls Creek.

Mrs. George, program chairman, will present studies of the opera with vocal solos by Mrs. Margaret Imbt, Mrs. Marjorie Barnes, and Mrs. George.

A trio composition for the piano will be presented by Mrs. Lucy F. Quig, Mrs. Eleanor Bender and Miss Helen Jollos. The program will close with trio compositions for violin, cello and piano with Grant Bartholomew, Mike Finelli and Hans Buedecker performing.

Mrs. Quig will preside at the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Eleanor Bender. Election of officers will be held.

A chorus rehearsal will be held directly after the meeting. Mrs. Dorothy Dunn, director, has asked all members to be present.

Mrs. Ann Herman and Mrs. Dorothy Dunn will be in charge of refreshments.

Easter Acts Today For Brownie Troop

Newfoundland — A wildly enthusiastic group of little girls completed final preparations for their Easter production, three "acts" to be presented on April 11, during their Brownie Troop Two meeting at the school.

While some of their members rehearsed, the others danced, played games, had their flag ceremony, recited their promise, and welcomed two new members, Jane Young and Terry Crouse.

It was announced that on April 18, under the direction of Mrs. Clayton Northup and Ruthann Fetherman, the "fly-ups" will begin trying their wings prior to entering girl scouting. "Fly-ups" include Ellen Cramer, Jean Ann Nolan, Melissa Burdick, Sallie Fitz and Gail Butler.

Against Harness Racing

The PTA went on record as opposing harness racing in Monroe County, approving a motion made by Edwin Buck.

The attendance prize was won by the second grade, and refreshments were served by the fourth grade mothers.

South Carolina has an area of 39,989 square miles.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Memorial Tonight

The officers and members of Monroe Council 131 are requested to meet in a body at the Lanterman Funeral Home tonight at 7:15 to conduct memorial services for the late Florence Westbrook.

Fire Aux. Tuesday

Marshall's Creek Fire Co. Aux. will meet at the firehouse on Tuesday night at 8 p.m. Mrs. E. Holt Wyckoff Jr. will be the guest speaker and will show slides and tell of her trip to Russia.

AFRICAN VIOLETS

A Large Assortment of Varieties Also Violet Soil and Food

J. L. WILLIAMS

Appliance Store

122 Main St. Stroudsburg

Smooth Sailing On Wash-Days Here

Prove to Yourself What a great Convenience and Marvellous Saving it is to use our modern Self-Service Laundry.

1/2 Hour Does Your Whole Weeks Wash

SELF-SERVICE LAUNDRY

3 Crystal St. East Stroudsburg

FREE

An educational film (full color and sound, complete with operator, screen and projector) to all ORGANIZATIONS, MEN AND WOMEN'S CLUBS, CHURCHES AND OTHER GROUPS

Running Time 22 Min.

For Reservations Call Ernest Bartleson, HA 1-4426

Between 4:30 P.M. & 6:00 P.M. or

CAP THEATRE Pen Argyl, PA 18059

Fri.-Sat. or Mon. Eve

Democratic Women To Plan Dinner

The Democratic Woman's Club of Monroe County will meet Wednesday night at 8 at the Stroud Community House. Final plans will be made for the dinner to be served at the Smithfield School on April 21. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

Water Gap WSCS Tuesday

Delaware Water Gap — The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church will meet Tuesday night at 8 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Delak at 8 p.m.

Final plans will be made for the sale of Easter flowers from the home of Mrs. Mabel Lightner Thursday through Saturday.

Calendar

Monday, April 11

Esther Circle, E.S. Presbyterians, at home of Mrs. Horace Walters, 751 Millford Road, E.S., 1:30 p.m.

ESNS Band Mothers, library of Senior High School, 8 p.m.

Ann Logan Society, PP&L Service Center, 8 p.m.

Morey PTA, 8 p.m.

Womans Club, Stroud Community House, 1:30 p.m.

St. Mathews Parents Assn., 8 p.m. in Parochial School Auditorium.

Foreign Policy Unit, Legion of Women Voters at home of Miss Margaret Mutchler, 8 p.m.

West End American Legion Aux., Gilbert Inn, 8 p.m.

St. Ann's Altar Rosary Society, Canadensis, 8 p.m.

Tuesday, April 13

Analomink PTA, 8 p.m.

Pocono Garden Club, Tannersville Firehall, 2 p.m.

General Hospital Aux. at Penn Stroud 2:30 p.m.

Monroe Co. Reg. Nurses Assn. General Hospital, 8 p.m.

Water Gap WSCS at home of Mrs. Joseph Delak, 8 p.m.

Marshall's Creek Fire Co. Aux., 8 p.m.

Stroud Fire Co. Aux. at Middle Stroud firehouse, 8 p.m.

Music Study Club at home of Mrs. Ann George, White Heron Lake, 7:45 p.m.

Meeting Changed

Bartonsville — The April meeting of the Junior Crusaders has been changed from the third to the fourth Friday of the month because of Good Friday. The new meeting date is April 22.

Stroud Fire Aux.

The Aux. to the Stroud Twp. Volunteer Fire Co. will meet at the Middle Stroud firehouse, Bridge St., Pocono Park, on Tuesday night.

Gideons Tuesday

The Gideons will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Marvin, Bartonsville.

TIMMY HARRIS, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harris of East Stroudsburg who celebrated his first birthday on April 1.

Horn, GOP Candidate Here Wed.

Woodrow A. Horn, of Easton, candidate for the Republican nomination for U.S. Representative from the 13th District, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Monroe Council of Republican Women on Wednesday at 2:30 at the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

Horn, who has the support of the GOP organizations in Northampton, Carbon and Monroe Counties, served six years with the U. S. Army in the Pacific Theater of operations and was promoted to the rank of colonel in 1946. He is married to the former Betty McClure and is the father of two sons.

Local candidates have also been invited and speakers will include Jerry Snyder, Montgomery F. Crowe and Hanford L. Cleveland.

A report of the recent Republican Conference in Washington will be given by Mrs. Jeannette Batory, Mrs. Spencer Cramer and Mrs. Carl F. Wagner.

Meeting Changed

Bartonsville — The April meeting of the Junior Crusaders has been changed from the third to the fourth Friday of the month because of Good Friday. The new meeting date is April 22.

Stroud Fire Aux.

The Aux. to the Stroud Twp. Volunteer Fire Co. will meet at the Middle Stroud firehouse, Bridge St., Pocono Park, on Tuesday night.

Gideons Tuesday

The Gideons will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis

M. L. Kitchen Stricken In Restaurant

MILTON L. Kitchen, 56, of 212 Lackawanna Ave., East Stroudsburg, died suddenly Saturday while eating in a restaurant.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Kitchen, Columbia, N.J., and had been a resident of Monroe County for the past 30 years.

Mr. Kitchen had been employed by Hughes Printing Co. for 25 years.

He was a member of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders, Local 206.

Six Children

Mr. Kitchen is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Anna Van Leuvan, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., and Miss Leona Kitchen, Tampa, Fla.; four sons, Milton, Willis, Terry and Gary, all of Tampa; two grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Der Veer, Somerville, N.J.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Lanterman Funeral Home with Rev. Forrest Spriggs officiating. Interment will be in the Prospect Cemetery, East Stroudsburg.

Friends and relatives may call at the funeral home Tuesday after 7 p.m.

Delaware Water Gap

N. E. Burd
Phone GR 6-0033

MR. AND MRS. Friend Akers celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary recently. Since their special day was last Tuesday and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Decker of Stroudsburg, celebrated a 25th anniversary the next day, a family gathering was held at the Akers home when the daughters served dinner. An added feature of the day was a pre-wedding shower given by the large group to the Akers' granddaughter, Miss Linda Waite of Brunswick, N. J., who is to be married to Vincent Andrews May 21. Miss Waite, who had come to honor her grandparents departed with a car full of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Russell and Thomas Russell, of Gwynedd, and six children were in Water Gap to visit Mrs. George Hauser who is a sister of the men. The visit was a farewell to the Hauser home which Mrs. Hauser has put up for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bridger and daughter Debra have returned to the Glenwood after their winter stay in Florida. Mrs. Herbert Baker spent two and a half weeks in Florida, visiting friends in Dubarry and in Miami and also going to Palm Beach. Mrs. Baker's son, Douglas, spent that time with relatives at Marshalls Creek.

A/le Dale Newhart spent two weeks home visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kitchen, coming from Ft. Niagara, N. Y. Thursday, Newhart and Airman Russell Bogie, of Albany, N. Y. left by automobile for Langley AFB, Va. From there they will visit points of interest on the way to Lowry AFB, Denver, Col. By the 15th they must report to Webb AFB, Big Spring, Texas for four months special training. The first of September, Newhart will re-enter Penn State Center at Allentown, Pa., having concluded his term of Army service.

Mrs. Thomas Lambert, who has been staying with friends in Neff, Pa., all winter, is ill and in the "Hoffs Hospital," Northampton, Pa.

NO PROGRESS

BALTIMORE (AP)—Several years ago, a station wagon seen around town was labeled on the door "Ain't got no farm."

There's a new one now which must be owned by the same people. It says, "Westilidont."

GIFTS

When you move...
When a new baby arrives...

Or when you celebrate a very special family occasion...

Your Welcome Wagon Hostess will call with a basket of gifts... and friendly greetings from our religious, civic and business leaders.

When the occasion arises, phone

HA 1-8834

WELCOME WAGON

Mrs. Florence Westbrook Dies At Daughter's Home

MRS. FLORENCE M. Westbrook, 72, widow of Anthony Westbrook, died Saturday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Snyder, East Stroudsburg RD 3. She had been ill for the past nine days.

She was the daughter of the late Jesse and Sallie Custard Lee of Mt. Zion, and had been a lifetime resident of the county.

Mrs. Westbrook was a member of the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church, the Sons and Daughters of Liberty and the daughters of America of East Stroudsburg.

Survivors

In addition to her daughter, Mrs. Snyder, she is survived by four other daughters, Mrs. Chester Hoffman, San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. Irene Stiff, Mrs. Burton Mengel and Mrs. Harold Hoffman, all of Baltimore, Md.; one son, Robert Westbrook, East Stroudsburg; 13 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Paul Hallett, Stroudsburg; two brothers, Elmer Lee, Stroudsburg, and Earl Lee, East Stroudsburg RD 3.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Lanterman Funeral Home with Rev. Harold C. Eaton officiating.

Interment will be in the Stroudsburg Cemetery. Friends and relatives may pay respects today after 7 p.m. in the funeral home.

New Antifreeze Set For Market

NEW YORK (AP)—A new automobile engine antifreeze which never needs to be drained will be placed in the market this summer by E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. Inc.

DuPont said yesterday the secret of the product is a new "long-life chemical inhibitor that rustproofs the entire cooling system and protects all metal surfaces, including the latest aluminum alloys, against corrosion." The product is called "Telar." It will retail at $5 a gallon, installed. This compares with a suggested retail price of $2.25 a gallon, installed, for Zerex and $1.60, installed, for Zerone, two other DuPont antifreezes.

The solution can be added to water to give any desired degree of protection to 60 degrees below zero. DuPont intends to market the product only through service stations. The price will be $5 a gallon even if the buyer wants to install it himself. Price to the dealer will be $3.35 a gallon.

place and Homer Christman, South Sterling, called on her niece, Mrs. Hersh, Allentown, and her sister, Mrs. Allen Gildner at Emmaus, where she is a patient at a convalescent home.

The local school will hold a straight session on Good Friday to make up the day lost on March 18 due to the snow storm.

VERDON E. FRAILEY
609 Main St. Stroudsburg
Phone: HA 1-7447
ATIONWIDE
Mutual Insurance Co.
Mutual Fire Insurance Co.
Life Insurance Co.
Home Office—Columbus, O.

Mrs. Casillia Shafer, this

Good Friday Observance Is Planned

WOODDALE — Good Friday services will be held at 7:30 p.m. that day in the Wooddale Union Church.

Holy Communion will be administered by Rev. Justin C. Feltham, following which there will be infant baptism.

Special music will be presented by the choir, while the entertainment will be given by the Sunday School at 10:15 a.m. on Easter Sunday.

The public is invited to attend.

Communion Service At Analomink

ANALOMINK — Holy Communion will be observed at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow by Rev. Justin C. Feltham at the Analomink Methodist Church.

It was announced that the Easter entertainment will be given by the students of the Analomink Sunday School at 10:30 a.m. Easter Sunday during the Sunday School hour.

Miss Florence Bates will have charge of the music, while each class will give a separate program.

The public is invited to attend.

Subscribe To The Daily Record.

Two Accepted As Firemen At Bushkill

BUSHKILL — The monthly meeting of the Bushkill Volunteer Fire Co. at the firehouse was attended by 19 members. Richard DePue presided.

Fire Chief Lawrence DePue reported the fire company stood by on Dingmans Ferry bridge playing spotlights on the river after a recent drowning. The company will send a note of thanks to the Delaware Township Fire Co. Auxiliary for coffee and sandwiches served at that time.

Lawrence Dickinson, chairman of the carnival committee reported progress made on the carnival plans.

Applications for membership in the company were received from Richard Keiper and Thomas Rohrer. Two new members were accepted, Thomas Bonser and Ernest George.

At a future date Carl Rohrer will demonstrate a non-electric fire alarm system to protect the fire house.

Engineers To Meet Friday

ALLENTOWN — John T. West, retiring executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers, will be the featured speaker at the Past-President's Night to be observed Friday by the society in the Elks Club, Allentown.

West's topic will be "Carrying the Flag." Persons desiring reservations for the dinner meeting should contact Donald E. McGarvie, P.O. Box 133, Emmaus.

It was also announced the Lehigh Valley unit of the society will host the state convention at Pocono Manor, May 19-21.

Couple Like Home Despite Condition

BOYERTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Despite a gaping hole in the front of their home, an elderly couple refuse to leave a house that was built when Indians roamed this area.

"We don't care what happens; we're not going to leave our home," said Mrs. William Reitnauer. She was wearing enormous boots and clutching a pet cat.

"We've lived here for over 50 years," she went on, "and this home was built before the revolution. It'll last us."

A great chunk of the front of the house gave way the other day, leaving a gaping hole as if a bomb had burst there.

The house lacks water, electricity, heating and plumbing facilities. Gusty winds whip through the cracks in the centuries-old stones, held together by a compound of clay and animal hair.

It's not easy to keep the oil lamps burning, and in extremely cold weather the two move to a barn on their property. It has a stove.

Nevertheless, since the front gave way, the Reitnauers, both 76, have kept to their daily routine eating and sleeping in the broken house, earning enough to live by.

GET RID OF TERMITES
FREE INSPECTION
J. C. EHRLICH CO.
1301 Coolbaugh St. DIAL HA 1-6881

The Globe STORE of Scranton, Pa. offers
ALL YOUR FOOD
YOU GET A Brand New Refrigerator
Freezer Combination and — THESE FROZEN FOODS —
10 Doz. Pkgs. Seabrook Farm Fresh Frozen Vegetables
210 lbs. or over of choice meats
1 1/2 Doz. Pkgs. of Sea Food
Fruits - Juices etc. along with Coffee-Flour-Sugar-Soap Powder
Soap-Campbell's Soups etc.
Everything On A Money Back Guarantee
NO MONEY DOWN FOR ONLY $15.95 Per Week Delivered
THIS WEEK ONLY! Double Trade-In On Your Old Refrigerator
PAUL F. HULL 523 Sarah St. Stroudsburg
DIAL HA 1-7727 FOR YOUR TAILOR MADE FOOD PLAN

doing odd jobs for orchard farmers and others.
A neighbor offered to build them a three-room bungalow, free.
"Thanks very much indeed," said Mrs. Reitnauer. "We still don't want to leave, though. I don't think we could get used to anything else."
Her husband, just as stout-hearted, nodded agreement.

The Gulf of Mexico measures about 1,000 by 800 miles.

State To Hold Pool Seminar

* PENNSYLVANIA Department of Health will coordinate a seminar for swimming pool operators in Stroudsburg tomorrow. Health Department members participating in the one-day program sponsored by the Pocono Vacation Bureau are Jack A. Bell, sanitarian assigned to the central office, and George Livingston, regional sanitarian in the Wilkes-Barre area. They will discuss the proper operation and maintenance of swimming pools.

ADVERTISEMENT

BLADDER WEAKNESS
If worried by "Bladder Weakness" (Getting Up Nights or Bed Wetting, too frequent, burning or itching urination), Secondary Backache and Nervousness, or Strong Smelling, Cloudy Urine, due to common Kidney and Bladder Irritation, try CYSLEX for quick help. Safe for young and old. Ask druggist for CYSLEX. See how fast you improve.

TRADITIONAL EASTER FOODS NOW ON SALE . . . SHOP EARLY AND AVOID THE CROWDS

WILSON'S - CERTIFIED - SMOKED EASTER HAM'S

Full Shank Half	Full Butt Half	Whole Ham
lb. 43c	lb. 55c	lb. 49c

FRESH — LEAN PORK LOINS

RIB END Sliced	LOIN END Sliced
lb. 25c	lb. 35c

BEST CENTER CUT PORK CHOPS . . . lb. 69c

SEA FOOD (BEGINNING TUESDAY)

Fancy Cod or Perch Fillets . lb. 29c

- SLICED HALIBUT STEAK lb. 49c
- FANCY NO. 1 SMELTS lb. 29c
- FLOUNDER FILLET lb. 39c

— Grocery Values —

PILLSBURY FLOUR 5 lb. Bag	10 lb. Bag	25 lb. Bag
51c	99c	$1.99

ALCOA OR REYNOLDS ALUMINUM WRAP 18 in. ROLL 59c

FRENCH'S MUSTARD 2 1/2 oz. Jar 25c 9 oz. Jar 15c 24 oz. Jar 33c

ENJOY FREE COFFEE AND DONUTS Every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Mornings AT GIANT'S POPULAR SNACK BAR

ELECTRICITY

IS YOUR CLEANER WAY TO COOK!

Your kitchen keeps its bright, brand-new beauty when you cook with a wonderful electric range. Walls and ceilings stay cleaner longer . . . curtains keep their crisp, just-ironed look. Even the air is garden-fresh.

Electric cooking means less scrubbing and scouring, too. There's no pilot to light, no flame to go out . . . no soot to blacken cooking utensils. And the surface units of your new electric range are self-cleaning. So, don't worry if you spill soup or sauces—spills will burn off. The broiler pan slips out for quick cleaning. And to keep the range surface sparkling, just wipe it with a damp cloth.

You'll enjoy cooking—and living—in your clean, pleasant, all-electric kitchen. See the newest electric ranges at your dealer's during the All-Electric Kitchen Carnival.

Metropolitan Edison Company

MR. PRESIDENT

by Patrick and Vinmont

JAMES MADISON

Born in Port Conway, Virginia, March 16, 1751. Privately tutored, at the age of 12 he could read Greek, Latin and Spanish. At 21 he had graduated from Princeton University and began the practice of law. Throughout his life, books on history, law and theology were his chief recreational interest.

At 25 he was a member of the Virginia Assembly and taking an active interest in the rights of the colonists. When he became Secretary of State under Jefferson, he had already been a member of the State Privy Council, the Constitutional Convention, the Continental Congress and United States Congress.

He conceived the first American House of Representatives, which afforded a complete representative national government with power of taxation, a judiciary and all the functions of centralized power by authority of the people. He composed the first tariff law and the law creating the State, Treasury and War departments. He introduced the first ten amendments—the Bill of Rights—into the Constitution.

He was inaugurated the fourth President of the United States, March 4, 1809 and re-elected, 1812. Blamed for the nation's shortcomings in the War of 1812, his popularity returned with victory at New Orleans and the return of prosperity. In 1826, he assumed the rectorship of the University of Virginia. Three years later, he came from retirement to sit in the Constitutional Convention of Virginia, closing 40 years of public service. He died at Montpelier, Virginia, June 28, 1836, aged 85.

ELBRIDGE GERRY

Born in Marblehead, Mass., 1744. At 18, he was graduated from Harvard College and associated with his father, a large processor and shipper of dried codfish. At 28, he was active in Massachusetts politics and two years later served as a member of the 2nd Continental Congress and signed the Declaration of Independence. As a delegate to the Constitutional Convention, he argued against the creation of the office of vice-president. During his long career in public life he gained a reputation as being opposed to everything he did not propose. He served as a member of the U. S. House of Representatives, 1789-93 and was one of a committee of three which negotiated with France to secure French recognition of the rights of the United States—the XYZ Affair, 1797. An unsuccessful candidate four times for Governor of Massachusetts, he was elected, finally, in 1810. During his tenure he authored and passed the "Gerrymander Bill."

A rich man when he entered politics, Gerry (pictured above) was financially poor when elected Vice-President of the United States, 1812, to serve during Madison's second term. He died in office, 1814.

George Clinton was Vice-President during Madison's first term.

MRS. JAMES MADISON

Born Dolly Payne, in North Carolina, 1768, Mrs. John Todd, a widow of one year, married James Madison in 1794. When her husband became Secretary of State, she served as Jefferson's part-time hostess. Attractive, vivacious and lovable, she was the recognized society leader of Washington. Entering the White House, socially talented Dolly Madison, with her gay, brilliant gatherings, became the most popular mistress ever to reside. She retired to Virginia with her husband at the close of his tenure. On his death, twenty years later, she returned to Washington where again she was welcomed as a social leader. She died in 1849.

Two Mine Defendants Freed

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — The first two of seven men to be tried on involuntary manslaughter charges stemming from a mine flood that took 12 lives have been acquitted.

A jury reached its verdict in less than three hours Saturday, thus freeing William Reesick, former Knox Coal Co. assistant foreman, and Robert Groves, former Knox superintendent.

Judge Bernard Brominski of Luzerne County Court thanked the jury, but made no further comment. The trial lasted five days.

The disaster occurred Jan. 22, 1959, when the Susquehanna River broke a hole in its bed and flooded the Knox mine at Port Griffith. The bodies of the 12 men never were recovered.

The five others indicted were granted a change of venue by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. They contended they could not get a fair trial in Luzerne County. They will be tried later in Easton, Northampton County.

They are Louis Fabrizio, president and treasurer of Knox; Robert L. Dougherty, former president; August J. Lippi, United Mine Workers official; Fritz Renner, chief engineer for the Pennsylvania Coal Co., and Ralph Fries, Pennsylvania coal district engineer.

Counsel for Reesick and Groves told the jury in final pleas that Pennsylvania Coal should have been blamed for the flooding. Knox leased the mine from Pennsylvania.

Attorney Frank McGuigan said Pennsylvania Coal could have canceled its lease when it saw its property was in danger.

"Why convict two men who are being tried as suckers?" he asked. The Commonwealth contended that Knox officials and others were negligent in allowing the mine to be operated so close to the river bed.

Before the river bed hole was plugged, water flooded miles of interconnecting tunnels under the Wyoming Valley. The valley's mining industry has never recovered.

WISHING WELL

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

4	7	5	6	3	8	7	2	6	3	4	2	8
W	E	S	R	Y	L	N	V	M	O	O	A	E
7	8	2	4	6	3	8	5	2	4	7	3	6
E	S	S	R	U	V	T	E	D	R	E	R	E
2	5	4	7	3	8	2	7	6	3	8	5	2
E	W	S	Y	L	E	R	G	J	Y	G	E	M
3	8	6	7	4	8	3	5	2	6	4	7	2
H	G	O	O	Y	B	O	L	O	B	O	N	N
8	2	7	4	3	8	5	2	6	4	3	7	6
U	E	D	U	M	I	N	Y	I	L	E	T	S
5	3	4	7	6	2	8	3	7	5	8	2	3
E	V	O	H	P	M	L	A	I	W	D	O	L
4	7	2	6	8	3	7	5	2	4	3	6	8
V	N	V	U	U	U	G	S	E	E	E	N	P

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day it is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right, then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Scrantonian Named
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — David S. Vipond of the Scranton, Pa., Tobacco Co., was re-elected president of the National Assn. of Tobacco Distributors during the organization's convention which ended Friday.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

For Monday, April 11, 1960

March 21 to April 20 (Aries) — Unfolding day, your Mars going to an auspicious aspect tonight and tomorrow. Plan your schedule now for action all through week. You can save time, energy, perhaps money. Be sure, however, to April 21 to May 21 (Taurus) — May have to curb some personal desires. Artists, writers, are not sponsored unless you give same your individual attention. Brain work and the social in many things are honored.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini) — Your Mercury well expected now augurs for intellectual progress, writing, advertising and promoting new and unusual interests as well as improving the old and familiar. Watch closely.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer) — Some hindrance to gratifying all wishes, but if you think and lay good program for most activities you can have a full and productive week including today.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo) — Similar and tendency to dominate or force your opinions (tendency today). An agreeable smile and conciliatory manner can bring unexpected help and gain. Your occupations can advance.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo) — A happy outlook today, you should bill on the forecast. Extra time used now to eliminate needless and time later will be well spent. Take worry, fear, strike out courageously to achieve.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra) — Advice to take pertinent to you now — your indications are similar. Try new ideas and methods to seek up hindrance everyday routine but don't discard the good just for sake of change.

October 24 to November 23 (Scorpio) — Temper your thinking and action. You will understand kindness. Day has advantages. Important loads but you must and them after your tasks quickly, efficiently, and gain.

November 24 to December 23 (Sagittarius) — Resident in expeditious, incurring debts advised. Familiar subjects, study, research in useful fields are honored. Make necessary changes to better your work and other interests.

December 24 to January 23 (Capricorn) — Your affairs are in delicate position as to be your cautious (not anxious) self as you carry through your schedule. Familiar is sure, are honored. Be alert!

January 24 to February 19 (Aquarius) — A big day for you folks with your plans. Friends in particularly auspicious position. Don't lose opportunities. Re-examine. Get after your tasks quickly, efficiently, and gain.

February 20 to March 20 (Pisces) — More favorable than not say your stars. Investigate unknown propositions. cooperate with those you should but be loyal to principles. You can advance today.

March 21 to April 10 (Aries) — Wait. Today, independent, active, impulsive. Sometimes aggressive in business but are quick to forget "enemies" and will extend a kind word and helping hand immediately. Have great capacity for gathering knowledge and for executing difficult tasks. You are fond of music, like harmony, and beauty and can be an interesting conversationalist. Aries natives make splendid teachers, orators, salesmen and impressive actors. Always guard against a tendency to egotism and thinking your plans and ideas are perfect. Be fair to others. Birthdate: Edward Everett, American statesman and orator.

Television Programs

NEW YORK CHANNELS

6:00-4 Continental Classroom	1:30-2 As the World Turns
6:15-2 Previews; prayer; news	4 Drama
6:30-2 Sunrise Semester	5 Film
7:00-2 News and weather	7 Ray Milland
7:30-4 Today	9 Playhouse
8:00-2	2 For Better or Worse
8:30-2	Queen for a Day
9:00-2	7 Day in Court
9:30-2	2 House Party
10:00-2	3 Lorey Young Theater
10:30-2	4 Love Story
11:00-2	5 The Millionaire
11:30-2	6 Young Dr. Malone
12:00-2	7 Beat the Clock
12:30-2	8 Strange Stories
1:00-2	9 Film
1:30-2	10 The Verdict is Yours
2:00-2	11 From These Roots
2:30-2	12 Doorway to Destiny
3:00-2	13 Who Do You Trust?
3:30-2	14 Film
4:00-2	15 Brighter Day
4:30-2	16 The Thin Man
5:00-2	17 Douglas Fairbanks
5:30-2	18 Bandstand
6:00-2	19 Secret Storm
6:30-2	20 Edge of Night
7:00-2	21 Buckskin
7:30-2	22 District Attorney
8:00-2	23 About Faces
8:30-2	24 Bill Hickock
9:00-2	25 The Clown
9:30-2	26 Big Boat
10:00-2	27 Film
10:30-2	28 The Thin Man
11:00-2	29 Three Stooges
11:30-2	30 Felix and Friends
12:00-2	31 Little Rascals
12:30-2	32 Bonanza
1:00-2	33 The Sailor
1:30-2	34 Second Wave
2:00-2	35 News; weather
2:30-2	36 Cartoons and Comedies

Fast - Thrifty - Leisurely Shop, Read, Relax While Your Whole Week's Wash
Is Being Done at...
WASH-EASY COIN-O-MAT
Near 553 Main St., Stroudsburg

EXTRA LARGE DRYERS

7 Yesterday's Newsreels	11 Silent Service
11 Superman	2 Ann Sothern
13 Passover Drama	4 Theater
6:45-2 News	7 Adventures in Paradise
7:00-2 News; weather	9 Strange Stories
8 Shotgun Slade	11 This Man Dawson
9 Adventures of Charlie Chan	2 House
7 Rescue 8	4 Steve Allen
9 Leakyton Circus	5 W.W. Rife
11 News; weather	7 Martin Kane
13 Wrap-up	9 Special Agent 7
7:15-2 News	11 June Allyson
7:30-2 Kate Smith	2 Ted Mack's Amateur Hour
8 Riverboat	4 Film
5 Manhunt	11 Code Three
7 Cheyenne	13 Playback
9 Film	15 News; weather
11 Bold Journey	17 Film
13 Highway Patrol	19 N.Y. Report; weather
2 The Texan	21 News
5 Dial 999	23 News
11 International Detective	25 Dance Party
13 Mike Wallace	27 Film
8:30-2 Father Knows Best	29 Jack Paar
9 Tales of Wells Fargo	31 Film
5 Divorce Hearing	11 Weather; sports
7 Bourbon Street Beat	13 Film
11 Kingdom of the Sea	15 Wendy Barrie
13 Play of the Week	17 Film
9:00-2 Danny Thomas	19 Film
4 Peter Gunn	21 Dr. Joyce Brothers
5 Film	23 News
9 Science Fiction	25 Film

Now is the time to switch to carefree automatic heating!
CONVERSION OIL BURNER SYSTEMS—from 299.95

D. KATZ & SONS, Inc. • Complete Installation • No Money Down
Dreher Ave., Stroudsburg—HA 1-1464 • F.H.A. Financed

PHILADELPHIA CHANNELS

6:00-3 Continental Classroom	11:15-6 University of the Air
10 Bill Bennett	11:30-3 Concentration
6:30-6 University of the Air	12:00-3 December Bride
10 University of Pennsylvania	3 Truth or Consequences
7:00-3 Today	10 Love of Life
10 News	12:30-3 It Could Be You
7:30-10 Amos 'n' Andy	4 Bob Cummings
7:45-10 My Little Margie	6 Search for Tomorrow
8:00-6 Breakfast Time	12:45-10 Guiding Light
8:30-10 Captain Kangaroo	1:00-3 Feature Film
9:00-3 Big Hauls	4 About Faces
6 Happy the Clown	10 News
9:30-10 Burns and Allen	1:05-10 People's Choice
6 Our Miss Brooks	1:30-6 Who Do You Trust?
10:00-3 Double De Mi	1:50-6 As the World Turns
6 Way of Life	2:00-3 Queen for a Day
10:30-10 Red Hots	2:30-6 Day in Court
11:00-3 Play Your Hunch	3 Lorey Young Theater
11:30-3 The Price Is Right	4 Gale Storm
6 Schindler's List	10 House Party
10 I Love Lucy	3 Young Dr. Malone
	6 Beat the Clock

Delco Low Cost Conversion Oil Burner Units
H. L. CLEVELAND Free Estimate Given
15 Crystal St. Dial HA 1-6581 E. Sub.

3:30-10 The Millionaire	8:00-10 Kate Smith
4:00-3 From These Roots	8:30-3 Tales of Wells Fargo
6 Bandstand	6 Bourbon Street Beat
4:30-3 Playhouse	10 Father Knows Best
10 Brighter Day	9:00-3 Peter Gunn
4:15-10 Secret Storm	9:30-3 Danny Thomas
5:00-3 Adventure Time	9:30-3 Theater
10 Edge of Night	6 Adventures in Paradise
5:30-3 Freedom Rings	10 Ann Sothern
10 Life of Riley	10:00-3 Steve Allen
5:30-6 My Friend Flicka	10 Hennessy
10 Feature Film: A Journey	10:30-6 Ted Mack's Amateur Hour
6:00-6 Ponye Theater	11:00-3 June Allyson
6:30-3 News; weather	11:00-3 News; weather
6:45-3 News	6 Newsreel; weather
6:50-6 Clutch Cargo	10 News
7:00-3 Death Valley Days	11:10-10 Weather; sports
6:50-6 Newsreel; weather	11:15-3 Jack Paar
10 News; weather; sports	6 Feature Film
7:15-6:10 News	10 Feature Film
7:30-3 Riverboat	1:00-3 Science Fiction Theater
6 Cheyenne	1:30-3 News

FOR YOUR FAVORITE RADIO PROGRAMS
WPVO—Dial 840

BLONDIE

HURRY-HURRY

By CHICK YOUNG

DICK TRACY

LIU SAID OUR GAME WAS WAITING—BIG GAME.

APPARENTLY, FIFTH HAS BEEN IN HAWAII BEFORE.

By CHESTER GOULD

BEETLE BAILEY

LOOK WHERE YOU'RE GOING, STUPID!

BUNCH OF NINGPOOPS!

By MORT WALKER

JOE PALOOKA

IT'S TH' CAT GIRL AWRIGHT! HMM... AN' THERE'S SUMPIN' FAMILIAR ABOUT THAT CHARACTER SHE'S WIT!

By HAM FISHER

NOW AIN'T THAT INTERESTIN'! TONS OUT OUR LITTLE FELINE-FANCYER IS TETE-A-TETIN' WIT' NONE OTHER THAN ACE FARGO!

MYRTLE—RIGHT AROUND HOME

WOTS UP? NOT ABE YA CUMIN FROM?

By DUDLEY FISHER

I CAN'T REMEMBER IF I'M TUCKERED OR JUST IN A HURRY!

BUZ SAWYER

THE GUANTANAMO PAYROLL IS IT SAFE?

WAS A LINE WITH A BUCY ATTACHED TO THE SATCHEL?

By ROY CRANE

BARNEY GOOGLE AND SNUFFY SMITH

SNUFFY--DO YE 'MEMBER WHEN MY BOY SAM'L GRANULATED FROM COLLEGE AN' GOT HIS FUST DEGREE?

YEP--I SHORE DO, LONZO

By FRED LASSWELL

THE PHANTOM

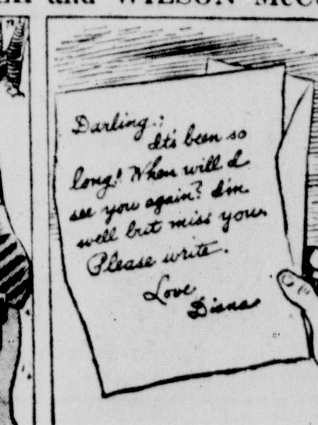

EXCUSE ME, CHIEF, I'M EXPECTING A LETTER.

THERE HE COMES--WITH A LETTER--I HOPE FROM DIANA!

By LEE FALK and WILSON McCOY

SPACE-EYE VIEW OF THE WORLD—The Tiros I weather satellite passes its wide-angle camera's eye over the earth and sends back these pictures from an altitude of about 450 miles. At left, looking northward, the Gulfs of Suez and Aqaba form rabbit ears on the Red Sea. The Mediterranean is at upper left and the Nile River is seen as a dark strip (far left). The right photo shows a heavy layer of clouds (center) hanging over the Alps with the Italian peninsula just below and the islands of Corsica and Sardinia faint patches to the left. A mechanical failure in a clock timer is keeping the Tiros I from taking detailed pictures while it crosses over Russia.

Easter Egg Hunt Planned By Newfoundland Scouts

NEWFOUNDLAND — An Easter Egg Hunt for the children of the area in the two to eight year age group has been planned by the Intermediate Girl Scouts of Laurel Troop One.

The egg hunt, an annual event for the local children, is set for April 16 at 10:30 a.m., and will be held at the legion hall. Weather permitting, the hunt will be divided into an indoor one for the tiny children and an outdoor one for the older youngsters. However, it will be held, rain or shine.

Also planned during their meeting this week was the Court of Honor on April 26 at 8 p.m. Covered dish refreshments will be served, and parents of the girls are invited to be present.

The girls will soon begin on their tin can stoves and buddy burners in preparation for a troop campout this Summer in Greentown. The campout is tentatively scheduled for June 14, 15 and 16. Alice Evans and Kay Robacker, senior scouts, will assist at the camp. Mrs. Robert March, Mrs. Harold Peet and Mrs. Robert Madsen will be the adult leaders.

Planned to begin about April 18 are several hikes to acquaint the girls with outdoor cooking procedures. A supper is scheduled for April 20. Every girl must have her own cook kit.

REEDERS INN
featuring authentic
Chinese Food
Closed Mon. 'til May 23
For Your Late Evening Snacks or Anytime... Take-Out Orders Available
Dial HA 1-9195 or 1-2689
Turn at Chevy Garage,
Tannersville, 3 Miles to Reeders

SHERMAN
HA 1-7520
Eve. At 7 & 9
TODAY & TOMORROW
A DOG OF FANDERS
CINEMASCOPE COLOR BY DELUXE
CAST: BOB DONALD, CRISP, THEODORE BIKEL
STARTS WEDNESDAY
Burt Lancaster
Audrey Hepburn
The Unforgiven

GRAND WELCOME HOME
ELVIS PRESLEY
You're the Greatest!
Jailhouse Rock
Color by Technicolor
Score by Academy Award Winner
DIMITRI TIOMKIN
An M-G-M Re-Release
ADDED ATTRACTION

THE TREASURE FROM OUTER SPACE!
Rhapsody of Steel
Color by Technicolor
Score by Academy Award Winner
DIMITRI TIOMKIN
An M-G-M Re-Release
ADDED ATTRACTION

Private Affair for Twenty-four
"Golden Eagle Inn"
At Portland, Pa.
Today's Special:
Prime Roast Beef
Serving from half after 11 a.m. until half after 8 p.m. in a Colonial Atmosphere where food and spirits are traditional...
... P. S. Visit the new second floor Colonial Bedroom
Showroom and sales areas of Frederick Ducklow & Bros. Inc.
(Open 6 full days a week)

Long List Of Events Announced

NEWFOUNDLAND — These are the important activities and dates scheduled in this area this week:

Today: Budding thespians of Brownie Troop Two will entertain with a series of three plays during their meeting at 3:45 p.m. at Southern Wayne Joint School under the leadership of Mrs. Emil Wohlfart. Laurel Troop One Girl Scouts meets at the legion home from 4 to 5:30 p.m. in the charge of Mrs. Robert March. Sterling official board meets at 8 p.m. at the church.

Holy Week services will be conducted at 7:30 p.m. at LaAnna Methodist Church for the South Sterling charge. South Sterling Bible class members will attend the service at LaAnna and then go to the home of Mrs. William Robacker for a business and social meeting. Morning devotions will be held from 8:45 to 8:55 a.m. at the Moravian Church by the Greentown-Newfoundland-South Sterling Youth Fellowship. Moravians will gather at 8 p.m. at their church for a Holy Week service during which the Passion Week Manual will be used.

The 4-H Horse and Pony Club will meet at 8 p.m. at Ash's Timbortop with Mike Campbell presiding. Rotarians will meet at Green's at 5:45 p.m. with J. B. Robacker in charge. The Mountaineers will bowl at 8 p.m. at Barrett with Lake Harbor vs. Buck's, and Gilpin's vs. Dutch's. The Bowlerettes will wind up their season at 8 p.m. at Hamlin with Frey's vs. Ruth Anne's, and F. A. Madden vs. Staph's. The Alley Kats and Conservative Five bowl at 6:45 p.m.

Tomorrow: This is the deadline for reservations to be sent to Edith Robacker for the Wayne County Federated Women's Club meeting at White Deer Inn, Hawley, on April 19. Morning devotions will be held from 8:45 to 8:55 a.m. at the Moravian Church by the MYF. A film, "We Beheld His Glory," will be shown at the 8 p.m. Holy Week service at the South Sterling Methodist Church for the whole charge. The Moravian Holy Week service will begin at 8 p.m. at the church. The DOTS will meet at 8 p.m. The South Sterling WSCS will houseclean the WSCS Hall beginning at 9 a.m.

Wednesday: Morning devotions will be held from 8:45 to 8:55 a.m. at the Moravian Church by the MYF. School closes this afternoon after regular classes for the Easter holiday, re-opening Monday morning. Sterling MYF members will have a business meeting and election of officers at the church at 8 p.m. Holy Week service will be held at 8 p.m. at Hemlock Grove Methodist Church for the whole charge, with Rev. Harry Roof as speaker. The Moravian Holy Week service will begin at 8 p.m. at the church. The Southern Wayne Joint School Library will be open from 7 to 9 p.m. for the use of the public. South Sterling WSCS will have a business meeting and program at 1:30 p.m. at the hall. Jericho congregation will meet for prayer and Bible study at 8 p.m. Hollisterville Baptist Church will have prayer meeting at 7:45 p.m.

Thursday: The Excelsior Class Gerald McLean's Reserve Grand Champion, Ayrshire Award at the Pennsylvania State FFA Show in Harrisburg; Roy McLean's third place ribbon at the State Show won with his Ayrshire calf; Quentin Mead's first place ribbon won in the tractor driving contest at the Greene-Dreher-Sterling Community Fair and second place at the Wayne County Fair; Samuel DeFrehn's Honorary Keystone Farmer Degree, highest award presented by the State FFA Association.

Other accomplishments reviewed during the evening were Gerald McLean's Reserve Grand Champion, Ayrshire Award at the Pennsylvania State FFA Show in Harrisburg; Roy McLean's third place ribbon at the State Show won with his Ayrshire calf; Quentin Mead's first place ribbon won in the tractor driving contest at the Greene-Dreher-Sterling Community Fair and second place at the Wayne County Fair; Samuel DeFrehn's Honorary Keystone Farmer Degree, highest award presented by the State FFA Association.

Friday: Good Friday Services will be held continuously at the Mountainhome Methodist Church from noon until 3 p.m., at thirty-minute intervals, with the theme, "The Seven Last Words." Moravian Good Friday services of the Trial and the Crucifixion will begin at 2 p.m., followed by Holy Communion at 3:15. Hollisterville Bible Protestant Bible Clubbers and Pioneers will meet at 7 p.m. at the church. Hollisterville Baptist young people will meet at 8 p.m.

Saturday: Laurel Girl Scout Troop of Intermediate Scouts will have an Easter Egg Hunt for youngsters of the area in the 2-8 age group at 10:30 a.m. at the legion hall, rain or shine. Hemlock Grove children's Easter party will be held at 2 p.m. at the church. Jericho young people will meet at 8 p.m.

Nut Grower To Speak On Tree Grafts
UNIVERSITY PARK — A demonstration of nut tree propagation will be given May 7 at 10 a.m. at the Harry L. Hobbs farm, eight miles west of Stroudsburg, in Neola, by George G. Weber.

Weber, a retired York County agricultural agent, will give the demonstration in how to graft trees to all those interested.

Weber is secretary of the Pennsylvania Nut Growers Assn.

In 1896, "Dorothy Dix" — Mrs. Elizabeth M. Gilmer — began her column of personal advice in a daily newspaper. It was the first popular "advice to the lovelorn" feature in newspapers. Today, most newspapers offer helpful and informative features on personal problems.

Summer Place Theme Still Youths' Favorite Record

Compiled Weekly By The Gilbert Youth Research Co.

Week	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20
SONG	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go	He'll Have To Go
STAR	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves	Jim Reeves
BOYS	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
GIRLS	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1

COMING UP FAST: Cherry Pie — Skip & Flip

Viewing Screens

"THE JEANNE CARSON SHOW," a situation comedy starring the musical comedy favorite, makes its ABC bow on Thursday, June 30, at 9 p.m. "76 Men and Peggy Lee" is the title of an hour-long special to be presented on CBS Thursday night, featuring Miss Lee with Mel Tormé, the Chad Mitchell Trio, the Newport Youth Band and the Yale Glee Club.

"The Troubled Teens," a specially-filmed television report on the problems and pressures encountered by the normal American teenager of today, will be presented as the sixth program on the "Woman" series on Thursday, April 28, with Jane Wyatt as hostess.

John Stephenson hosts the "Bold Journey" travel series at 7:30 tonight on ch. 11, when, with only a few dollars in his pocket, Dwight Long starts out from Seattle in his 32-foot ketch for a seven-year journey which includes stopovers in Tahiti, Singapore, Ceylon, Arabia, Mediterranean ports and England. Kate Smith's guests at 7:30 p.m. on ch. 2 and 10 will be the Four Aces.

Billy Gray, as Bud Anderson, fails to love and learn while being tutored by a beautiful classmate who proves to be a slave driver and remains unimpressed with his best efforts to put their relationship on a personal basis on "Father Knows Best" at 8:30 p.m. on ch. 2 and 10, co-starring Robert Young, Jane Wyatt, Elinor Donahue and Laurin Chipin and featuring Diana Milay.

Dale Robertson stars on "Wells Fargo" at 8:30 p.m. on ch. 3 and 4, and is looking for the heir to a fortune, but the search gets more difficult when he learns that the man is going under an assumed name and is wanted for murder. Jim Backus makes a guest star appearance as the fast-talking, life-long friend of night club entertainer Danny Williams on "The Danny Thomas Show" at 9 p.m. on ch. 2 and 10.

Craig Stevens portrays "Peter Gunn" at 9 p.m. on ch. 3 and 4, and searches the city for an unknown assassin who is killing known gangsters. Rossano Brazzi makes his dramatic debut on American television when he stars as a husband whose plan to dispose of his wife in order to wed a beautiful girl is thwarted by a completely unexpected incident on "The June Allyson Show" at 10:30 p.m. on ch. 2 and 10.

The church, Hemlock Grove choir will practice at Krieger's after the communion service, Greene-Dreher and Promised Land Fire Companies will meet for their respective fire halls.

Friday: Good Friday Services will be held continuously at the Mountainhome Methodist Church from noon until 3 p.m., at thirty-minute intervals, with the theme, "The Seven Last Words." Moravian Good Friday services of the Trial and the Crucifixion will begin at 2 p.m., followed by Holy Communion at 3:15. Hollisterville Bible Protestant Bible Clubbers and Pioneers will meet at 7 p.m. at the church. Hollisterville Baptist young people will meet at 8 p.m.

Saturday: Laurel Girl Scout Troop of Intermediate Scouts will have an Easter Egg Hunt for youngsters of the area in the 2-8 age group at 10:30 a.m. at the legion hall, rain or shine. Hemlock Grove children's Easter party will be held at 2 p.m. at the church. Jericho young people will meet at 8 p.m.

Nut Grower To Speak On Tree Grafts
UNIVERSITY PARK — A demonstration of nut tree propagation will be given May 7 at 10 a.m. at the Harry L. Hobbs farm, eight miles west of Stroudsburg, in Neola, by George G. Weber.

Weber, a retired York County agricultural agent, will give the demonstration in how to graft trees to all those interested.

Weber is secretary of the Pennsylvania Nut Growers Assn.

In 1896, "Dorothy Dix" — Mrs. Elizabeth M. Gilmer — began her column of personal advice in a daily newspaper. It was the first popular "advice to the lovelorn" feature in newspapers. Today, most newspapers offer helpful and informative features on personal problems.

Special Notices

Funeral Notices

HOFFORD, John H., of Saylorsburg RD 2, April 7, 1960. Aged 72 years. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend funeral services Monday, April 11 at 2 p.m. from the Kresge Funeral Home. Interment in the Appenzell Cemetery. Viewing Sunday after 7 p.m. KRESGE

LANSDOWN, Harold A., Sr., of Buena, N.J., April 8, Aged 56 years. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend funeral services Monday, April 11 at 2 p.m. from the Lanterman Funeral Home. Interment in the Laurelwood Cemetery. Viewing Sunday after 7 p.m. LANTERMAN

STORM, Clinton A., of Stroudsburg RD 2, April 8, 1960. Aged 72 years. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend funeral services Monday, April 11 at 2 p.m. from the Daniel G. Warner Funeral Home. Interment in the Shafter's School House Cemetery. DANIEL G. WARNER

WESTBROOK, Florence W., of Stroudsburg RD 3, April 9, 1960. Aged 72 years. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend funeral services Tuesday, April 12 at 2 p.m. from the Lanterman Funeral Home. Interment will be in the Stroudsburg Cemetery. Viewing Monday after 7 p.m. LANTERMAN

AFRICAN VIOLETS!
Violet Soil & Food, J. L. Williams, 422 Main St., HA 1-3919

LARGE SELECTION of Easter Flowers. Grow locally. Price's Greenhouse, near Schell's Market, N. 5th St., Call HA 1-0952

In Memoriam
CEMETERY MEMORIALS
1. Two classes of cemetery bronze plaques, marble & granite. STROUDSBURG GRANITE CO., Main at Dreher, HA 1-3591

SEEK and investigate LAURELWOOD, Monroe County, a fully endowed, care cemetery. Beautiful - Modern - Convenient - LAURELWOOD CEMETERY, Stroudsburg, Pa. Ph HA 1-8239

Special Notices
OFFICIAL PROPOSAL
Sealed proposals for the construction of a new 1959 Model, two door sedan automobile, solid color, color to be selected by the purchaser, to be furnished shall meet the following specifications: V-8 Engine, minimum horsepower 200; 220 cu. in. displacement; vinyl front seat; large heater and defroster; two electric windows; heavy duty clutch; heavy duty shock absorbers; tested speedometer; spotlight with mirror; seven (7) tie rods (rear). Delivery shall be made at direction of Council, but no later than July 10, 1960. Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check in the amount of Fifty Dollars ($50.00). The certified check will be retained as liquidated damages in case the successful bidder shall neglect or refuse to enter into a contract in accordance with his bid.

Sealed bids must be in hands of Donald J. Sables, Secretary, Mount Pocono Borough Council, Mount Pocono Borough Council, P.O. Box 100, Mount Pocono, Pa. 18344, not later than 8:00 P. M. May 2, 1960, at which time said bids will be opened and read in open meeting of Council in the Town of Mount Pocono, Pennsylvania. Building, Mount Pocono, Pennsylvania.

Contract documents may be examined during office hours at the Division of Flood Control Office, Department of Forests and Waters, Room 465, Education Building, Harrisburg; or at the Flood Control Field Office, 121 Washington Street, East Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania. Contract documents will be furnished upon payment of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each set, upon application to the Division of Flood Control, Department of Forests and Waters, Room 465, Education Building, Harrisburg. Contract documents need not be returned and the payment WILL NOT be refunded.

MAURICE K. GODDARD, Secretary, Department of Forests and Waters.

Funeral Notices
KITCHEN, Milton L., of East Stroudsburg, April 9, 1960, aged 56 years. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend funeral services Wednesday, April 13 at 2 p.m. from the Lanterman Funeral Home. Interment will be in the Prospect Cemetery. Viewing Tuesday after 7 p.m. LANTERMAN

LABAR, Herbert D., of Mink Hills, April 9, 1960, aged 45 years. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend funeral services Thursday, April 14 at 2 p.m. from the Lanterman Funeral Home. Interment will be in the Bushkill Cemetery. Viewing Wednesday after 7 p.m. LANTERMAN

Copy of plans, specifications

Special Notices

LEARN to play modern bridge! Classes Monday and Wednesday 8 p.m. Free lectures to private bridge clubs. A Harry Freeman, N.Y. City, master bridge instructor. VI 1-5542

TO BUY, SELL, RENT OR TRADE CALL HA 2100 FOR EAST-RENTALS IN WAVY RADIO WAVE AD.

VACUUM cleaners. All type houses & parts. Sobinski, 90 Brown St., E. S. Ph. HA 1-0862

Lost And Found
BEAGLE found and one of its litter. Call after 4:30, HA 1-9085.

SMALL reddish-brown long hair miniature Pinscher. Answers to name Jack. Reward, HA 1-2016.

Education & Instruction 10
ACCOMPLISH lessons according free while learning. ED 3, E. Stig Ivar Peterson HA 1-1382

Professional Services 14
HOWARD POPKIN
Advertising & Public Relations
Dial HA 1-6232

Who Can Do It 15
ADDITIONS, rumpus rooms, porch cement work, repairs, ceiling tile a specialty. Call Richard Gault, HA 1-1671

ANTENNAS
Install, Repair, Move
HA 1-1155 Thomas G Smith

ANY Township or private drive owner who needs a power grader call Lou Bell, Long Pond, Pocono Lake 2-3174.

BE MODERN — Ride Now! Buy Later! Call McConnell's. TALK HA 1-7000

BUILDING CONTRACTOR
Carpentry - Masonry - Alterations
RUBY ABER, Ph HA 1-8291

ELECTRICIAN — New and Old Work. J. J. Miller, 4 Camden St., Stroudsburg, HA 1-3705.

EXCAVATING, Grading, Contractor Bulldozer, Shovel, Tractor, LEON KLEINER, Ph Pocono Lake 2-3174

ELECTRICAL CONTRACTOR
MATT KIME
8 No. 6th St., Strubg HA 1-3100

EXPERIENCED floor maintenance. Floors, machine scrubbed, waxed, polished. HA 1-3706.

FRANK MASTEN
BUILDING CONTRACTOR
Columbia, N. Y. Ph HA 6-5285

FURNITURE RESTORED
ANTIQUE AND MODERN
ELWOOD FISH HA-2617

FURNITURE upholstered and repaired. Dunn Tire Upholstery Shop, E. 6th St., Engle, Phone HA 1-5265.

GET your repair work done on farm equipment before the season starts. Farm machinery & types service. MILLER OIL-VER, Broadheadville, PA 1-4043.

HAIRING — Top soil, fill & fill. Call Allen A. Keiper, HA 1-0895.

LAWN mowers and parts available. Complete line of parts available. Woody's Fix-It, HA 1-8460.

MOVING — TRUCKING
Storage — local & long distance. North American Van Lines, J. R. Lesing, Ph HA 1-6081, 1808 West Main St.

NAOMI Landrum (Naomi Cottages) Cresco — open 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

OIL BURNERS
Economical, easy conversion burners. Plumbing, heating, appliance sales & service. H. L. CLEVELAND, Ph HA 1-6081, 10 Crystal St., East Stroudsburg.

PIANO tuning, remodeling & refinishing. ARTHUR SHAMP, Piano Tuner, Ph HA 1-5047.

POLES — Fencing & set for fences. All types of fencing. HA 1-7490. C. G. Bush.

REPAIR SERVICE
Sewing machines, washers, vacuum cleaners, electrical appliances, all work, reasonable and guaranteed. Call HA 1-2510 or inquire 416 Main St., Strubg.

SUNGAS
FOR BETTER COOKING
DEPENDABLE AS THE RISING SUN!
Only Bottle Gas does so much costs so little.
DUTCH HANEY, INC.
Phone Strubg HA 1-6680
Route 2611, Tannersville, Pa.

PHONE
BUSKILL
LU 8-6609

METERED GAS SERVICE
Pay For Your Gas After It Is Used. You Are Billed Monthly

COMMERCIAL & DOMESTIC INSTALLATIONS
New and Used Ranges and Water Heaters
L. E. DePUE, Owner
BUSKILL, PA.

Celebration Of Passover Opens Today

THE PASSOVER Festival of Freedom will be ushered in tonight at Temple Israel with services beginning at 6:30 p.m. Rabbi Joshua Soddien will conduct the services with the assistance of members of the congregation. Further Passover services will be held tomorrow at 7:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. and Wednesday at 7:30 a.m.

The Jewish holiday Passover marks with colorful ceremonies the flight of the Israelites from ancient Egypt, as related in the Book of Exodus.

Seder Rites

The most singular feature of the Passover holiday, which is observed seven days by Reform Jews and eight days by Conservative and Orthodox Jews is the Seder. This is a home worship service of exceptional dramatic content.

The table is set with foods and objects that symbolize the deliverance of the Jews from Egypt. There is, for example, the matzoh — the unleavened bread — to recall the bread baked in haste as the Israelites took flight. There are the bitter herbs as reminders of the hardships undergone by the slaves under Pharaoh in the years of their oppression.

There is a sprig of parsley on the table to remind the assembly that Passover is also a festival of spring. A roasted shankbone is an emblem of the paschal lamb and the haroset, a mixture of apples, nuts, raisins, cinnamon and wine symbolizes the mortar from which the Israelites made bricks for the Egyptian pyramids.

The youngest child asks four traditional questions about the holiday and the remainder of the service is devoted to a response by the family group out of the Haggadah, or narrative. There are also traditional songs to delight and instruct the children.

Joys Of Liberty

Moses is the great figure in the saga of Passover, yet it is not his life's story that preoccupies the worshiper in this holiday observance.

Passover is the time when Jews celebrate the joys of liberty and draw parallels between the hardships they underwent in Egypt and in later persecutions during the thousands of years of their history. The emphasis, however, is always on ultimate deliverance and hope for the future.

On Passover, many prayers are recited in regard to freedom. Here is one from the Union Prayer Book typical of the Passover service:

May we be imbued
With a deep sense of our duty
As free men;

And, when we gather in our homes
In happy family reunion,
May we be mindful of those Still dwell in the house of bondage

And eat the bread of affliction.
With minor variations in the forms of the service and foods served, Passover is celebrated by Jews throughout the world who in the spirit of the event welcome strangers to the table and temper the joy of the festival with thoughtful reflections on the theme of freedom so central to the occasion.

Dear Abby

It's The Contents That Count

Dear Abby: Our son is 15 and likes to read. He goes to the public library every Saturday and brings home an armload of books. Lately he has been reading some books that seem immoral to us. We are not highly educated people so we don't know what is considered good literature and what is plain dirty. The books I refer to have been best-sellers in the past few years, so I think you know which ones I mean. I skimmed through them and saw some 4-letter words we don't use in this house. Our son says if the books are in the public library they are O.K. What is your opinion?

YOUNG MAN'S PARENTS

Dear Parents: Books do not gain acceptance merely by being in the public library. Many popular books full of 4-letter words and purple passages can be found there. You may not be "highly educated" but your instincts are correct. The churches, teachers and librarians are the best guides for young readers.

Dear Abby: I am married to the world's fussiest enter. He won't eat anything fried and he can't stand meat of any kind unless every bit of fat has been trimmed off. He hates anything green on the table and refuses all food no matter how you fix it. He won't eat "mixtures" (stews or spaghetti and meat balls are out) and he hates fish. To top it off, all he eats for dessert is ice cream. He is one of those mamma's boys who didn't marry until he was 40 and he is still talking about his mother's cooking. What shall I feed him?

OUT OF IDEAS

Dear Abby: During my marriageable years (from 18 to 24) I was very shy and not very popular. Finally I married a man two years younger than myself but he turned out to be a badly mixed-up mamma's boy so I divorced him.

Everyone takes me for about 24 to 28. I am 40. A 28-year-old man wants to marry me. Should I?

LOVELY AND LONELY

Dear Abby: Does the 28-year-old man know that you are 40? If not — tell him. If you love each other and he knows your age, I see no reason why you shouldn't marry.

Dear Abby: I'd like to point out to "The Sister of Ed and Paul" that she'd better wipe the tears out of her eyes and read a book on wedding procedure.

I have lived half a century and have been a guest at church weddings of all denominations, and I have yet to see a best man come down the aisle in a wheel chair, riding a horse or on foot. It is customary for the groom and the best man to quietly enter from the right front. The bride comes down the aisle on the arm of her father.

ANNOYED GRANDMA

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Every Teen-Ager Wants To Know," send 25c and a large self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.

Special Bus Radio City Easter Show

April 16
6:50
Leave Wyckoffs 9:30 a.m.
A. B. Wyckoff

It is estimated that each cubic mile of sea water contains three tons of the element nickel.

Jeddo-Highland Old Co.'s Coal

Lehigh Valley Hazleton Silver Creek
CITY COAL CO.
Phone: HA 1-8611

COAL

Politicians Desire Positive Elections

WASHINGTON (AP)—Politicians always claim they like nothing so much as a good fight, but they don't mean it. Like the rest of us, what they yearn for is the sure thing, the can't-miss production.

Yet if the Wisconsin primaries proved anything, which may be doubtful, they point to this: Even a sure thing has its hazards.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who has the Republican presidential nomination securely locked up, ran third and last in Wisconsin Tuesday.

This can be easily explained, and explainers rushed in with their explanations so quickly they obviously had them ready long before voting was done.

But one stark fact remains, Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), who ran first, and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) who ran second, collectively wound up with half a million votes more than Nixon got.

Nixon isn't the type who likes to run third, any time, any place, for any reason.

Nixon's greatest success so far may turn out to be his greatest handicap. When New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller withdrew from the chase, a lot of the luster, and all the excitement, went along with him.

Now Nixon has to find ways to pump interest into his campaign—and his handlers are forced to give out explanations that this wasn't a fight at all.

It's curious how politicians want to avoid intraparty fights.

An argument could be made that voters like fights most of all. Recent White House residents all had trouble winning their nominations.

Franklin D. Roosevelt first won in Chicago after an exhausting night session. Harry S. Truman won in Philadelphia after a wild night in which Southern delegates walked out. And who can forget the spectacular battle in Chicago between Dwight D. Eisenhower and Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio?

If a fight does nothing else, it at least puts to flight a politician's relentless foe—voter apathy.

Tiros Doing Well

WASHINGTON (AP)—Space agency chief T. Keith Glennan said that the U. S. weather-watching satellite is "doing exceedingly well" in photographing the earth. But he balked at talking about its possible use to spy on the Soviet Union.

Is the pinch in your pocketbook getting more painful? Are soaring prices the inevitable cost of national growth? Not at all! This is the good news that comes from 64 representatives of education, business, labor and government who met recently at the American Assembly. They stated that we can enjoy the greater growth we need without sky-rocketing prices—and at the same time cut unemployment to the minimum. Basic requirements are steadily rising productivity, plus the close and constant cooperation of all Americans, working for common goals.

You can't afford not to be well-informed. Write today for free booklet, "Prices, Growth and You," to American Assembly, Columbia University, New York 27, N. Y.

Published as a public service in cooperation with The Advertising Council and the Newspaper Advertising Executives Association.

The First-Stroudsburg National Bank

Founded 1857
Member of
Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Arlington Branch 1110 N. Ninth St.

Jobless Claims Aide To Speak

PAUL J. SMITH, director of Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Board, will be the main speaker at an open forum, presented by the Pocono Mountain Vacation Bureau, in the Penn Stroud, Tuesday at 11:30 a.m.

Smith will discuss the recent amendments to the unemployment compensation law covering students and seasonal workers.

He will also be available to answer any questions or problems on this subject.

it's fur storage time

For Safe Protection
Call or bring your furs to

Wyckoff
HA 1-1400

With Spring at Hand ... lovely new kitchen and dinette brighteners

Just Arrived . . . New CAFE and TIER CURTAINS

Only 1.99

MATCHING VALANCES 99c

- 4 Different Styles: 3 Cafe and 1 Tier Style.
- Lovely Prints and Solids
- Washable Cottons
- 9" Wide Valances

"DRIP DRY" COTTON SATEEN
Solid color cafe curtain made of a Springmaid fabric. Little or no ironing. Toast, Pink, Melon, Red, Blue, Gold, Green, White. Sizes 60 x 36.

"DRIP DRY" SAILCLOTH
The extra wide cafe in handsome prints. Wash n' hang, crease resistant. Machine washable. Little or no ironing. Green, Turquoise, Pink, Red. Size 76 x 36.

LINED BROADCLOTH CAFE
Handsome prints on cotton sailcloth and lined with broadcloth. Washable. Beauty style, super-value. Turquoise, Pink, Green, Red. Sizes 58 x 36.

"DRIP DRY" COTTON TIER
Cut-out border print tier curtain. Wash n' hand cotton broadcloth, crease resistant. Toast, Gold, Red, Melon, Pink or Blue. Sizes 64x36.

SUSIE:
Are those pieces of paper real money?
(Wow! Mom has a whole book full of them!)

MOTHER:
They're better than real money
(My checking account just saved me an hour's trip to pay bills.)

Mother appreciates, too, the convenience of having a record of all her expenses on her check stubs. At tax time it's invaluable. Any time it makes budgeting simpler.

Mother appreciates, too, the convenience of banking here BY MAIL when her time is limited or the weather is unpleasant. This is just one of the many ways we serve the whole family.

The First-Stroudsburg National Bank
Founded 1857
Member of
Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
Arlington Branch 1110 N. Ninth St.

Home Furnishings — Second Floor

Another Shipment

Kwik Kover

adhesive-backed, stain-resistant plastic

by plastron

20 New Rolls of Discontinued Patterns Special 3 yds. 1.00
18" Wide

New Patterns in our Regular Stock of Kwik Cover 18" and 21" wide.

Sticks to itself—no tools, no tacks, no paste, no mess. Amazing "Strip-Off" backing peels off in a jiffy. Decorate at a savings with these first quality patterns.

Home Furnishings — 2nd Floor

New Shipment of gay and bright CHAIR COVER SETS

Only 99c Set

Add new brightness and comfort to your chairs with these cushion and back sets. Two styles: Quilted vinyl with ruffle trim on seat and back in solid colors of Pink, Blue, Red, Grey, Yellow; Printed vinyl cover with ruffle trim, Yellow, Red, Pink, Green.

Pin Stripe, Box Style, Vinyl Seat Cover in Black, Yellow, Red, Gold.....89c

Home Furnishings — 2nd Floor

April Sale

Rytex Antique Vellum Personalized Stationery
Double the Usual Quantity
3.15 Regularly 4.75

Choice of: 200 Club Single Sheets, 100 Envelopes or 100 Large Monarch Sheets, 100 Envelopes.

High quality fairly heavy letter paper. Smart, faintly visible, chain-laid pattern in it's cream texture. White, Blue or Grey in blue, grey or mulberry ink.

"the friendly store"
A.B. Wyckoff
STROUDSBURG, PA.

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS

1. Bedroom furniture
5. Dismays (var.)
11. Tardy
12. Capital of Lebanon
13. Rubout
15. Vestige
16. Hat
17. The chief Teutonic gods
18. Attempt
19. Peruvian coin
21. Fiji Islands (abbr.)
22. Motorman's compartment
23. Cain's brother
25. Brass, e. g.
28. Coast
29. Vegetable
30. Meadow
31. Sun god
32. Heavy weight
33. Pad
36. Come in
39. Tally
41. Worship
42. Having ears
43. Small finches
45. Magician's stick
46. Negotiates
47. Kill

DOWN

1. A crack
2. More frequent
3. Site of 1960 Olympics
4. Finest
5. Jewish month
6. Part of a flower
7. Fear (obs. var.)
8. Macaws
9. Satan
10. Free from bacteria
14. Literary composition
20. Siberian gulf
22. Against
23. Exclamation
24. Fellow (slang)
25. Side by side
26. Hellespont swimmer
27. Music note
28. Meaning
30. Behold!
32. Canadian river
33. Right and proper
34. Gladiators' sphere
35. Presidential nickname
37. Ripped
38. Assam silkworm
40. Sounds, as a crow
44. Steamship (abbr.)

A Cryptogram Quotation

Y C Y V V K Y H C I K C S B H Y V
K U J K N V D B Z C I P X Y S X K C:
K U Y B R V — F B U C K Y Z P.

Saturday's Cryptogram: HEALING IS . . . SOMETIMES ALSO A MATTER OF OPPORTUNITY—HIPPOCRATES.